NO. 159—SEVENTY-SEVENTH YEAR VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1935 TWENTY PAGES

PROVINCE STARTS FIGHT WITH DOMINION

MAINLAND STRIKERS URGE COAST TIE-UP

General Marine Walkout Is Called by Waterfront Workers at Vancouver—Seek to Close Island Ports and Order Deck and Engineer Crews Out on British Columbia Boats

NO decision had been reached at an early hour this morning by longshoremen here in response to a call from the Transport Workers' Union of Canada for a general waterfront strike to begin at 7 o'clock this morning. Officials of the local association had been in session for several hours and announced no strike vote had been taken at 1:30 this morning. The officials could not say when a vote would be asked.

VANCOUVER, June 14 (P)—A general marine strike in British Columbia loomed tonight as a strike call for 7 o'clock tomorrow morning went out from the Longshore Water Transport Workers' Union of Canada to all affiliated locals in the province.

The strike announcement was made by George Brown, secretary of the L.W.T.W.U. of C. after a special executive meeting tonight at which the central strike committee recommended such action be taken in view of the impasse between Vancouver longshoremen and the Shipping Federation of British Columbia, employers' organization.

The call affects some 2,000 men in port and coastwise shipping, in addition to 900 members of the Vancouver and District Waterfront Workers' Association, who walked out June 6, after the federation claimed that the association had broken its six-month-old agreement. Since then the federation signed an agreement with the Canadian Waterfront Workers' Association, and some 300 men are now employed in loading and unloading operations on deep-sea vessels in port.

ISLAND AFFECTED
Organizations ordered out include longshoremen of New Westminster, Victoria, Chemainus, Nanaimo and Alberni; Export Log Workers' Association, grain liners and fishers of New Westminster, and Vancouver.

CLOSE SECRECY VEILS DISASTER

Foreign Newspapers Are Arrested at Scene of Explosion in Germany

WITTENBERG, Germany, June 14 (CP-Havas).—Official sources placing the number of victims of the Wana munitions factory explosion at fifty-two and unofficial estimates ranging much higher. Nazi authorities tonight maintained their strict press censorship, climaxed by the temporary arrest of six foreign correspondents.

Meanwhile, squads of workmen continued digging bodies of victims from the smoking piles of debris, as military guards, with fixed bayonets, kept the crowds of anxious relatives and newspapermen from the scene of the disaster. Late today it was announced that forty-five bodies had been recovered.

Foreign newspapermen who sought to enter the destroyed plants were arrested by police and submitted to a rigid cross-examination but later set free. Camera men were banned from the grounds.

NAZI VERSION ONLY
German newspapers were forbidden to print anything but the official Nazi version of the catastrophe.

One woman was reported killed by a fragment of iron a mile away from the factory.

Factory workers replied evasively to questions put by newspapermen, as they had been given strict orders not to discuss the accident with strangers.

Members of the staff of the Wittenberg Hospital also refused to discuss the matter, and would not say how many victims they had treated.

Kidnapping Is Proposed for Straying Hog

That fractious hog of the Alta Lake farmer, which strayed from its pen four weeks ago now, had better watch out. Yesterday the British Columbia Department of Agriculture got tired of writing letters about it, and sent its own limited dose of cannibalism, a powerful poison and sleep-inducing drug. There was enough punch in the dose to put the hog to sleep for half an hour. Now all the farmer has to do is to catch the hog and induce it to take the dose, so that it can be kidnapped, sleeping and uncomplaining, back into its shipping crate.

BRITAIN AND GERMANY TO SIGN AGREEMENT ON NAVAL POWER

Two Members of Government Will Meet Strikers at Regina

TORONTO, June 15 (P)—Minister of Railways Dr. R. J. Manion and Minister of Agriculture Robert Weir left Ottawa last night for Regina to meet the 2,000 unemployed marchers, who have been halted there in their trek to Ottawa from British Columbia and Alberta. The Globe said today in a dispatch from its Ottawa correspondent.

Decision to send the ministers to Regina was reached by the Prime Minister late last night the dispatch adds. On their arrival in the Saskatchewan capital they will probably receive a small delegation of the unemployed and endeavor to learn first hand what their grievances are.

City's Land Sales Show Increase of Over 300 Per Cent

Purchase of Twenty Properties Insures Construction of New Homes—Tax Revenue Already Increased More Than $2,000

AN increase of 333 per cent land sales so far this year was reported yesterday by Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the lands committee of the City Council. This has not only brought in money to the treasury in actual sales, but boosted the tax revenues, he declared. In view of the big increase in sales resulting from an active sales policy by the committee, the lands committee has taken under advisement another scheme, which it is hoped will step up the sales still more.

So far this year twenty parcels of land have been sold as compared with six parcels last year. The price secured by last year's sales was $3,550, while so far this year the total is $6,530.

ENCOURAGING HOMES
A study of the sales disclosed that in every case construction work was encouraged. It is estimated that homes valued at approximately $50,000 have been built, or are being planned by the purchasers of this property.

"This means," Alderman Dewar stated, "that we add to the assessed value of our property and thus increase our tax revenues. Tax receipts from the new buildings alone will amount to approximately $1,230, while by placing twenty parcels of land back on the tax roll, we increase the revenue by another $800. Thus so far this year our committee has been instrumental in not only bringing $6,530 into the treasury

TO TRY OUT NEW ELECTION SYSTEM

OTTAWA, June 14 (P)—House of Commons today gave first reading to the Government's bill asking authority to try the alternative vote in Federal ridings of Saskatchewan, but the bill was accepted for further consideration only after an unprecedented scene, in which Liberals challenged the resolution to introduce it and the motion for first reading.

In two full-dress divisions the Government was sustained easily. On the motion to introduce the measure, sponsored by Minister of Justice Hugh Guthrie, the vote was 79 to 39. On first reading it was

SECURES TEMPORARY INJUNCTION AGAINST FARM CREDIT BOARD

British Columbia Opens Attack on Authority of Federal Parliament to Invade Provincial Rights—Attorney-General Makes Surprise Application to Supreme Court Justice

BRITISH Columbia opened its promised fight against Ottawa yesterday. Attacking the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act as an invasion of Provincial rights under the British North America Act in an ex parte application before Mr. Justice Murphy, Attorney-General Sloan secured an interim injunction, good until June 27, staying operation of the farm relief measure on Provincial contracts.

In a sudden move without advance notice of immediate application for the injunction, Hon. G. M. Sloan, K.C., appeared before Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court chambers here in the late afternoon, and fired the first round in the legal battle. He secured an order restraining the Board of Review under the farm relief law proceeding with adjustment in any contract affecting Provincial taxation or Provincial contracts.

As the application was made in an ex parte hearing, the interim injunction was granted without opposition. It implies that on June 27 both Federal and Provincial counsel will argue the second stage of what has been announced as a determined test by the Province to upset the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act as it applies to Provincial affairs.

Phenomenal Gold Strike Is Reported

CUSTER, S.D., June 14 (P)—Francis Case, Custer newspaper publisher, reported today a vein of gold-bearing ore which may mean the greatest strike in Black Hills history has been discovered in a mine near here. The ore, he said, has an estimated value of $2,000 a ton.

CITY ASKS FOR SIMILAR GRANT

Council Wants Same Treatment as Vancouver in Respect to Storm Damage

Mayor David Leeming, Alderman John Worthington, Walter Luney and Archie Wills, at yesterday's meeting of the City Council, were appointed a special committee to wait upon the Government and ask for consideration of the council's request for a grant towards the repairing of the Ross Bay seawall.

Several months ago Alderman Worthington sponsored a motion asking the Provincial Government to give Victoria the same consideration as Vancouver in connection with the extraordinary damage done by storms last winter.

VANCOUVER AIDED
Vancouver was given $20,000 to help pay for repairs to Stanley Park, which was damaged by the storm.

Alderman Worthington pointed out that so far the city had expended nearly $12,000 on repairing Ross Bay seawall, which was damaged during the storm.

The special committee will ask the Government whether it proposes to take any action in the matter. The city has resolved to reply since Alderman Worthington's motion was forwarded to the Provincial Government.

Heat Too Great For Manoeuvres

REGENSBURG, Germany, June 14 (P)—The German army command was forced to call off manoeuvres here after five soldiers died and seventy-five fell ill of sunstroke, it was learned today. The heat reached 117 degrees Fahrenheit.

Victoria Citizens Carry Staggering Load Without Government Assistance

Gifts bestowed on Vancouver City by the Provincial Government for the development of parks and for industrial purposes have been mentioned in this series. The value of such properties is staggering. Let us, however, view the picture from another angle, without reference to the aid given to Vancouver, and which the citizens there had a right to expect. Let us see what Victoria gives to the Government.

Victoria is the seat of Government. It was the only thing that the Island secured at the time of the unjust annexation of the Crown Colony of Vancouver Island to British Columbia. It was the influence of Sir James Douglas that succeeded in salvaging this much out of the wreck, for Governor Frederick Seymour was anxious to move the capital to New Westminster. In any event it was permanently established here. There are certain definite advantages to the city that is the capital. There are also disadvantages, and it is of these that, in all fairness, consideration should be given.

It should be the duty of Government to make some effort to assist in the development and beautification of the Capital City. Instead, year after year pleas for assistance

North China Gripped by Fear That Japanese Offensive Imminent

PEIPING, June 14 (CP-Havas).—Fear that a major Japanese offensive into Chahar Province was imminent gripped North China tonight as Japanese troops massed north and south of the Great Wall. Qualified Chinese observers expressed grave concern despite official Japanese assertions that China would accept the demands made by the Japanese military authorities.

DESIRE FOR FOOTHOLD
Japan's desire to obtain a firm foothold in the strategically important Chinese province west of Manchukuo was again brought forward with reports that Japanese troops were massing in the great Khingan Mountains separating Manchukuo and Chahar.

A Japanese force believed to number about 500 men today was prepared for emergencies at Miyun, about fifty miles northeast of

RESIGNATION IS CABINET'S REPLY

Quickly Follows Statement of Mexican President Urging Serenity in Solving Problems

MEXICO CITY, June 15 (CP-Havas).—The Mexican Cabinet resigned early this morning. The resignation came a few hours after President Lazaro Cardenas, in an effort to halt what he termed "grave and unjustified agitation," issued a statement urging serenity in solving problems confronting the country.

Cardenas made no direct reference to the recent declaration of former President Plutarco Calles, deploring political differences and the wave of strikes which has swept Mexico. Cardenas made clear in the statement, however, that his government stood behind labor in realizing "its just demands."

The resignation followed an emergency session of the Cabinet.

CEASE FIRE AND BEGIN JUBILATION

Arms Stacked After Three Years' Warfare Costing Some 100,000 Lives

BUENOS AIRES, June 14 (P)—Ninety thousand Paraguayan and Bolivian soldiers stacked arms at noon today, after three years of jungle warfare that took 100,000 lives.

A "cease firing" order along the thirty-mile front from the Pilcomayo River to the Brazilian frontier, put an end, temporarily at least, to fifty years of bitter, intermittently bloody international dispute over El Gran Chaco.

The order was the signal for un-restrained, almost delirious rejoicing in La Paz and Asuncion, capitals of the war-weary belligerent nations, and all South America, in holiday, echoed their jubilation.

RID YOURSELF OF THIS COMPLAINT

WOULD LIKE TO TELL THOUSANDS ABOUT HARRIS' WONDRO

Dear Sir,—About last June I was subjected to an attack of Neuritis in my right arm and shoulder. The pain was so severe I was unable to perform my household duties for over two months. My sleep was broken every night, and life was made very miserable. Consequently I could take no interest in anything. I tried many treatments, but received no benefit.

Last August I decided to take Harris' Wondro, which had been recommended to me. I commenced to feel relief after taking only one bottle. I have been taking it steadily since, and am thankful to say that I am now almost free from pain and have enjoyed undisturbed sleep for some time. Your medicine has not only relieved me of the terrible pain on sufferings from Neuritis, but my husband has also commenced taking Harris' Wondro as he is under-weight, and I feel quite sure it will have the desired results.

I shall be only too pleased to recommend Harris' Wondro, and should you at any time wish to use this letter as a testimonial you are at liberty to do so.

Yours truly,

DELAY DECISION IN APPEAL CASE

Members of Court Will Take Time To Consider Judgment in Rex vs. File

The appeal in Rex vs. File was concluded yesterday forenoon, with the British Columbia Court of Appeal reserving its judgment. On the opening of the case by E. A. Dickie for the Crown, Mr. Justice Martin, presiding, pointed out that the charge laid was that the accused lived in part on "the earnings of prostitution," instead of on "the avails."

Mr. Justice McPhillips said he could not see that there was the absolute proof, as required, of the earnings going to the accused and alluded to the finding of the Court of Appeal that a Chinese cook, who was employed in a disorderly house, was not open to the charge of living on the avails.

Mr. Justice Martin pointed out that it was shown that the cook did nothing other than prepare meals. Even those who might live by evil ways were entitled to live.

INSPECTOR'S EVIDENCE
Mr. Dickie pointed out that the evidence of Inspector J. A. McLeenan, of Victoria, was that the Panama Hotel was known as a disorderly house and in law general reputation in such cases was sufficient. To this, Mr. Justice McPhillips said that it was unreasonable to suppose the police would tolerate continuance of such a place. Mr. Dickie stated that that might

LOOKING FOR KIDNAPPER IN B.C. INTERIOR

Rosland Editor Thinks Mahan Asked for Reporter's Job There

U.S. AUTHORITIES SEEKING TWO MEN

ROSSLAND, June 14 (P)—W. A. Elletson, editor of The Rossland Miner, tonight told British Columbia police that a man whom he said strongly resembled pictures of William Mahan, wanted in connection with the Weyerhaeuser kidnapping, had asked for a newspaper job last Monday.

Elletson said the man came into his office and represented himself as an American newspaperman. When told there was no opening in Rossland, he left in a car with a companion and was later reported going in the direction of Grand Forks, east of here, Elletson said.

POSING AS SCRIBES
He did not connect the stranger with Mahan, Elletson said, until he heard that two men claiming to be newspapermen from Seattle had crossed the border at Newlay, B.C. June 3, and were being sought by officers, who believed the pair might have been Mahan and a companion. Today, Elletson, after seeing a picture of Mahan, said the stranger strongly resembled him.

J. A. Kerr, of Nelson, who was visiting at Trail, seven miles from here last Monday, said that a man representing himself as a commercial traveler temporarily in need of funds, borrowed $7 from him, leaving his watch as security. The watch has not been claimed yet, Kerr said.

DANCE RECITAL WELL RECEIVED

Pupils of Mona Jewell Give Fine Programme in Aid of Sunshine Inn

A dance recital, including ballet, tap and novelty numbers, was given in the Shrine Auditorium last night by Mona Jewell's dance academy, in aid of the Sunshine Inn. The programme was full of zest, each act succeeding the other in rapid succession, so that there was not a dull moment throughout the entire evening.

There was a good rousing opening when the entire school as a chorus gave a dance and song number in their costumes. The programme, which was divided into three parts, had several outstanding ensemble numbers, with solo and duet numbers interspersed.

COSTUMING WELL DONE
The costuming was exceedingly well done, and the performers danced with free, graceful movements that won the approbation of the large audience. Several comedy numbers gave a pleasant contrast to the classic and semi-classic turns. In all there were forty-five acts, and it is a tribute to the instructor's organizing ability that there was not one delay, and the performance was over in good time for the children. Many flowers were brought to the stage at the close of the recital and presented to the artists.

THE ARTISTS
The artists who took part were: Jean McGrath, Marilyn Gray, Sylvia Welch, Lorraine Grace, Maybell Harris, June Miller, Mona Kermode, Irene Gray, Edward Whyte, Elaine Ingram, Winnie Brown, Joyce Woodfield, Robina Prior, Dorothy Kermode, Vina Whyte, Margaret Welch, Beatrice Stromkins, Kathleen Stromkins, Doreen Nunn, Thelma Whyte, Nancy White, Ruby Royer, Marguerite McLeod, Jean Caird, Marjorie Turner, Cedonia Gagnon, Vera Pearson, Barbara Wilson, Evelyn Nuttall, Ethel Stuckey, Dorothy Smith, Violet Stuart, Helen Whyte, Hazel Pearson, Ena Foyer, Joan Pearson and Mona Jewell. Miss Winnifred Green was the accompanist.

LOAN REFUSED
The breakdown of fiscal negotiations with Ottawa, under which the Province had asked for a loan of $3,000,000 for highway purposes, $4,000,000 for relief, and other forms of assistance, is unofficially believed to have precipitated a breach that had been threatened for some time. Actual objection to the farm relief law as it affected British Columbia contracts was taken by the British Columbia Government much earlier in the year, after initial concurrence with the measure before its full import was understood here. This was followed by written protest to Ottawa with interference with Provincial rights.

Public objection to the act was taken by the Attorney-General here while Mr. Hart was in the East. Almost immediately a more explicit statement followed, in which point the issue rested until the sudden court move of yesterday.

FEDERAL POLICY
The Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act was one of the Federal policy bills brought down at the session of Parliament. Its object was explained at the time as a means of affording reasonable debt adjustment to those on the land, by a voluntary scaling down of debts before a special board of review.

The board of review met in British Columbia, in due course, and has already dealt with a number of applications from farmers. It was when these applications commenced to include some from farmers indebted to the Province that the British Columbia stand on the issue was openly declared. Then it was that the plan infringed upon Provincial rights in respect to taxation, contracts, and in other matters.

and engine room and deck crews of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Canadian National Steamships, Kingsley Navigation Company and the Coastwise Steamship & Barge Company.

Union Steamship Company vessels and Vancouver ferries will not be affected, C. F. McKenzie, secretary of the Seafarers' Industrial Union, said, owing to the fact that the ferry service was necessary to the public and that the Union Steamships had recently signed an agreement with its employees.

Previously the L.W.T.W.U. of C. had asked affiliated locals to take a strike ballot and with the exception of the seafarers' organization, Brown said all had voted to back the Vancouver longshoremen.

The Seafarers' Union vote was not expected until Sunday night, but Secretary McKenzie said tonight that "in view of the flat refusal of the Shipping Federation to negotiate with the longshoremen, it was decided that immediate action was necessary and the executive of our union has therefore ordered members to answer the strike call of the parent body."

Trying to Escape Order to Prevent Boarding Trains

Relief Camp Strikers May Use Strategy to Avoid Clash With Police in Continuing Their Trek to Ottawa—Tag Day and Picnic Are Being Planned for Week-End

REGINA, June 14 (P)—Wits of 2,000 striking relief campers from British Columbia and Alberta tonight were being pitted against a police order that they must keep off freight trains and thus terminate their trek to Ottawa to demand abolition of relief camps and institution of a "work and wages" programme.

The Federal Government, so far as local officials knew, stood firm by its order that the army of strikers must not board trains again. Premier J. G. Gardiner, of Saskatchewan, disputing the right of the Federal Government to interfere, issued a statement placing full responsibility for any violence that might occur upon the shoulders of the Federal Government and the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways.

AVENUES OF ESCAPE
Two avenues of escape from the police order were reported to be under consideration, one a route that would send the men tramping thirty-five miles to McLean, Sask., and the other involving riding by bus or truck out of Saskatchewan and into Manitoba where they would again clamor aboard eastbound freight trains. Through either way the strikers hoped to avoid a clash with police, although what would happen if they were again met by police was uncertain.

Riding into Regina from Moose Jaw, forty-five miles west of here, aboard freight cars shortly before dawn this morning, the army of division leaders, formed fours and marched to the stadium at exhibition grounds where the stadium had been prepared for them. Tonight they held a mass meeting, tomorrow a tag day will be held and a picnic is slated for Sunday.

The strikers sought the use of the armories here for their meeting that night, but the request was refused. The citizens' emergency committee passed a resolution at a meeting here today in command of Military District No. 12 provide written reasons for refusal of the request. The refusal was criticized by M. J. Coldwell, leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, Saskatchewan section.

Estimates placed the number of police now assembled here in excess of 500, mostly Royal Canadian Mounted Police. They were brought here from Saskatoon, Moose Jaw, Edmonton and Calgary. It was reported.

Tossed by Bull And Little Hurt

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 14 (C)—Robert Devereux, Jerseyville Road farmer, escaped serious injury today when tossed six feet into the air by an enraged bull. His dog rushed at the bull and worried it into the barn, where it was locked up. Devereux suffered only bruises and skin abrasions.

HE FELT MISERABLE AFTER MEALS

Acute Indigestion Relieved by Kruschen

The treatment which put this man right must surely be worth trying in every case of indigestion. Read what he says:
"Two years ago I suffered very much from indigestion, loss of appetite, and a most severe pain in my back. Food soured in my stomach. I felt most miserable after meals, and had no desire or appetite for them. A friend advised me to try Kruschen Salts. I did so, and I am most happy to testify that after a short time I felt the greatest relief. I continued taking Kruschen till I felt myself quite better and a new man. I feel as light-hearted as I did twenty-two years ago."—W.B.
What Kruschen did for him it will do for everybody else who suffers from indigestion as he did. The fact is that "the little daily dose" of Kruschen first stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and then insures a complete regular and unfailing elimination of all waste matter every day. No Speculators to Benefit on Grain At Farmers' Cost

Prime Minister Tells House Gamblers Are Short by More Than Twenty-Five Million Bushels—Will Permit No "Bargain Fire Sales"

OTTAWA, June 14 (C)—Speculators are short between 25,000,000 and 35,000,000 bushels of wheat on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, Premier R. B. Bennett told the House of Commons today.

As long as he is head of the administration, there will be no dumping of wheat by the Government-backed selling agency of the pools to provide fire-sale values for international speculators at the expense of Western farmers, the Prime Minister declared.

The raid on the market started last Fall, Mr. Bennett said, and in two days prices dropped six cents under the avalanche of selling orders. The identity of the speculators was not determined because they operated under wire orders to brokers.

ENORMOUS HOLDINGS
Today, John I. McFarland, of the Central Selling Agency, holds 225,000,000 bushels in futures. This is 25,000,000 more than the visible supply and 35,000,000 more than the visible supply plus the holdings of farmers and millers.

The House gave second reading to a Government bill establishing a wheat board, sending it to a committee of nine members for review. "As far as this Government is concerned," Mr. Bennett said, while a rush fell over the House, "the life of the wheat is not in jeopardy. It is a matter of wheat to take place to gratify the ambitions of speculators in any part of the world."

FLOODS IN TEXAS TAKE NINE LIVES

Torrential Downpour Fills Creeks and Devastates Wide Tract of Country

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 14 (C)—Yellow flood waters claimed nine lives and rushed on in a widening tide of devastation today in Southwestern Texas. Severe rains fell the torrents. Many were missing in addition to the known dead. Several hundred persons fled their homes as rivers and creeks, swollen by rains of from six to ten inches, inundated villages and farm lands.

through actual sales, but also increased the city's annual tax revenue by a total of $2,030.

REDUCE TAXES
Every new home, he declared, means a reduction in taxes, for since the city already has all the necessary improvements installed, the new homes do not create the need for more services so much as would be the case in an undeveloped district.

Alderman Dewar also stated that several exchanges of property had been authorized by the council on the recommendation of the committee, and that in each case, buildings were being contemplated by those concerned.

STATES CHIEF OFFERED HER CHAMPAGNE

Woman Witness Says She Visited Cameron's Ranch With Celona

NO INTERFERENCE WITH INSPECTOR

VANCOUVER, June 14 (C)—The conspiracy trial of ex-Chief of Police John Cameron, Joe Celona and Lou Barrack adjourned today until Monday after a surprise witness had been injected into the case.

After objections of defence counsel Judge J. C. McIntosh ruled that part of Mrs. Sophia Logue's proposed evidence, relating to a visit to Cameron's Port Haney ranch last year, was inadmissible until the Crown had first established a combination among the three accused.

VISITED RANCH
During her brief stay on the witness stand Mrs. Logue testified that she, three other girls, Celona and a driver named Frank went to Cameron's ranch last Summer and had champagne to drink.

Other witnesses today included Inspector A. G. McNeill and Alex Johnson, constable and driver for the detective squad.

Inspector McNeill said he was at Cameron's ranch when Celona, Shue Moy, Morris Radinsky, Frank Turone and four women arrived.

Testifying in regard to police administration under Cameron, the inspector said the chief never interfered with him in his duties and gave particular attention and assistance in his branch.

REDUCED CRIME
Witness admitted that the police had to obtain information from underworld characters in their efforts to keep down major crime. During the first year after Cameron took office, the inspector said, there was a noticeable drop in the number of major crimes and this situation was more marked the following year. The ex-chief, witness said, was up night after night tracking thugs and would be down at his desk the next morning at 8 o'clock. Ten Crown witnesses remain to be called.

DEATH FOUND TO BE ACCIDENTAL

New Hing Evidently Excited When Bicycle Rider Collided With Him in City

A verdict of accidental death was reached yesterday by the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Mew Hing, who was hit by a bicycle ridden by Lyle Pelland on Wednesday last. The accident occurred at the corner of Government and Herald Streets.

The evidence of Mr. Pelland was that he was proceeding northward on Government Street on his bicycle about 8 a.m. A No. 5 street car was just ahead of him and as Herald Street was approached, witness, wishing to avoid passing the tram at the intersection of the streets, proceeded to coast at that point.

Mew Hing, who was standing at the corner of the street, stopped suddenly from the curb, going in the direction of the street car, which slowed down. The rider of the bicycle said that he could not pass the Chinese in front of him and attempted to pass between the man and the curb.

CHINESE KNOCKED DOWN
Just at that time, Mew Hing turned quickly and went back to the sidewalk. Mr. Pelland stated he had attempted to avoid him, but could not, in spite of his turning his bicycle right into the street. Mew Hing was knocked down, while the rider had his left eye injured. Witness stopped in taking to the injured man and then telephoned the police.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Vernon Lloyd-Owen (petitioner), appellant, vs. J. S. Slater (liquidator of Pioneer Gold Mines, Limited, in liquidation), also petitioner, and A. E. Bull, J. Duff-Stuart, R. B. Boucher, F. J. Nicholson, Helen A. Wallbridge (executors of A. H. Wallbridge, deceased), respondents.

This is an appeal from an order of Murphy, J., at Vancouver on March 13, 1935, dismissing the appeal of the Pioneer Gold Mines, Limited, to commence an action against the respondents for the recovery of certain assets of the company, alleged to have been wrongfully taken over by them.

The appellant is a substantial shareholder in the company, which was originally a private company, but on a decision to change it into a public company, having the right to put its shares on the market, it became necessary to wind up the original concern. The property and assets would, therefore, be transferred to the new company.

The circumstances of the case revolved around the early struggles of the promoters to finance and develop the property, the respondents then occupying the status of a syndicate to raise the required capital. An action was taken by a Mr. Ferguson, as a shareholder, on behalf of himself and other minority holders, to declare that the assets in question were wrongfully absorbed by the syndicate in the financing negotiations. These assets presumably went to the new company.

The case went up to the Privy Council and was unsuccessful all through. The result was that it was found that Mr. Ferguson was not, nor was any other minority shareholder in the company, competent to bring an action to recover from the majority shareholders assets allegedly belonging to the company. But indicated that such action, after the commencement of the voluntary liquidation, could be taken only in the name of the company. Hence the petition to have the liquidator proceed. Murphy, J., refused leave.

The appeal is being argued before Martin, J.A. (presiding), and McPhillips, M. A. Macdonald and McQuarrie, J.J.A.

TO SIGN AGREEMENT ON NAVAL POWER

MODEL FOR TREATY
Authoritative quarters said the Anglo-German agreement would be put forward as a model for a multi-lateral treaty among European powers or world powers. If Japan is willing to join, Germany, it was understood, declared her willingness to participate in a multi-lateral pact, but the agreement with Britain is equally binding on both unless naval building by some third power releases them.

Germany's willingness to restrict each category to 35 per cent of the British under age strength caused speculation as to what her total tonnage would be, with most estimates placing it between 300,000 and 400,000 tons. This will depend partly upon when the ratio goes into effect, naval circles said.

At present, one of Britain's fifteen battleships, sixteen of fifty-one cruisers, 111 of 161 flotilla leaders and destroyers, one of eight air-don naval treaties.

POLITICAL PERPLEXITIES

The political situation in the Dominion is complicated, and there is no approximate indication of what will happen at the next general election which will be held in September or October. There is still anxiety regarding the health of Mr. R. B. Bennett, and, so far, no assurance that he will be able to conduct an election campaign. There is a movement in Eastern Canada in favor of a National Government with a membership drawn from the different political parties. Moreover, there is no indication of the public reaction to the attempts of the present Government to reform the economic system. There is a realization, too, that there are constitutional obstacles in the way of regulating business.

The Liberal party has been quiescent for a long time, more or less reducing its activities to perfunctory opposition in Parliament. It has no clearly-defined programme and has been awaiting some pronouncement from its leader. There is no denial of the fact that there has been a wave of Liberal thought throughout the country, as indicated by the results of recent provincial elections, and that may well make itself apparent in the Federal election. The Liberals, too, are well organized and are taking full advantage of the untapped mentalities that is an evidence of the times. There are, as well, many cross-currents of thought which will lead to a multiplicity of candidates at the polls. If, at this time, statesmanship were allowed to be the dominant factor in the political situation there is little doubt that a National Government would be formed. So far that movement has simply secured the support of the leaders in the business and financial life of the Dominion. Without a National Government it is exceedingly doubtful if there will be any solution of the railway problem, because neither the Conservatives nor the Liberals desire to make that great issue one for decision at the polls.

MR. FRED LANDSBERG

Victoria has been, and is, blessed with many public-spirited citizens, and foremost among these for a long number of years was Mr. Fred Landsberg. His name had come to be synonymous with deeds of good. He was ever seeking out those who were in need, who were suffering in any way, who were insufficiently endowed with the world's goods to alleviate that suffering. It is true that in these latter years Mr. Landsberg himself was hard hit financially, and it was not always out of his own pocket that he could help. He was active always, however, in enlisting the assistance of others when his own purse gave out, and no more energetic worker in this particular has even been a citizen of Victoria.

Mr. Landsberg had a heart of gold, and it beat for all during his half-century's residence here. Perhaps no citizen had a greater host of friends; most certainly few if any had more admirers. The man was genuineness itself, with a spirit which no calamity could confine. He was the same in fair or foul weather, and he was strongly tested in the latter case, for his financial vicissitudes were many, but he bore them all smiling and never lost respect in any quarter. A keen business man, whatever his avocation in life, one of his temperament and outlook was certain to win confidence, and that Mr. Landsberg had this to an unusual degree is a matter patent to all who knew the place which he occupied among our citizenship. It was but fitting that such a humane benefactor should have been honored with the Appreciation Award of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of British Columbia.

In civic affairs the late Mr. Landsberg always took the keenest interest, and when he was the chief figure in the Civic Retirement Association his activities and those of his associates in that movement were responsible for bringing about a reduction in municipal taxation. His interest in this particular never flagged, but his main preoccupation remained philanthropy, and it is in this respect that his memory will long be honored. His concern in this particular was catholic in its scope and he was a minister to suffering of every kind. As a citizen of a high calibre, Mr. Landsberg impressed his humanity on his fellows. He had a most likeable personality, and what more perhaps than anything else endeared him to so many was the earnestness he brought to bear on any cause he espoused. All Victoria may well pay tribute to him, for he was what citizenship should be, a man who gave himself whole-heartedly to humane work, who asked for no reward, who never spared himself in his philanthropic activities and one who seemed to think first, last and all the time of the welfare of his fellow-men.

NEO-PAGANISM

Germany's retrogression from Christianity under the Hitler regime is afforded an illustration by a neo-pagan wedding at Pforzheim, in Wurttemberg, in which the principals were a Nazi corporal and his bride. The "marrying table" was adorned with two linked man-urns and a golden sun-wheel on a blue ground (the pagan emblem) composed of flowers. Torch-bearers were posted to left and right of the table behind which was a flaming bowl and rostrum. The marriage oration was given by a man versed in the neo-paganism and was based on the song of Heigl and Sigum from the Edda. The bridal couple were then handed bread, the symbol of "germinating earth-strength," and salt, the symbol of purity, in silver vessels. At the close they received their rings.

It is the youth movement in Germany that contains a threat of a campaign against the Christian Church. A new religion is being taught to German youth bearing some comparison to the Shinto religion of Japan. The aims have been described by Herr Baldur von Schirach, the Reich Youth Leader, who says the people want to live for a single, indestructible ideal. That ideal is the heroic future of the German people. He does not believe that mass being against God. The Youth Leader claims Germany is defending the eternal values of religion against those who want to make a business of religion. The aim is to build in the hearts of youth a great altar on which Germany stands. One of Herr von Schirach's lieutenants struck the same note as his chief recently when he directed a threat definitely at the Roman Catholic Youth Organizations. "It is said," he remarked, "that the Hitler youth will be brought up to a new paganism. We object most strongly to a youth which bears the name of the greatest and most pious of all Germans being designated as godless by Centre intriguers. Adolf Hitler's youth is brought up in his spirit, and we know for certain that this youth can never be brought up without religion."

Despite these protestations there is an all-embracing effort to take steps against the Church organizations and parents who have hitherto kept their children out of the Hitler Youth movement. That the movement is, at least in a sense, anti-religious is evidenced by the decision that the solemn ceremony of admission to the Hitler Youth must take the place of the Christian confirmation ceremony. There is a religious and philosophical struggle in progress in Germany today. The issue is of importance both in the internal development of the German people and in international affairs. The Youth Movement has its fanatical side. It is definitely neo-paganism, and as such has the most dangerous tendencies in a nation hitherto regarded as Christian.

HEAVYWEIGHT BOXING

The Americans have a habit of approaching every event with hyperbole in expression. They are the adjectival nation par excellence. They deal with their happenings in superlatives, and a particularly applicable instance of these is found in the comments on the latest heavyweight fight. Perhaps it would be a mistake to call the Baer-Bradlock contest a fight at all, for it was more of a boxing exhibition in which one participant outpointed the other. To describe the result as "the biggest surprise in ring history" is surely an exaggeration. Mr. Baer was never more than an accidental champion. His opponent, who succeeded in winning the championship from him, can hardly lay claim to be other than a mediocre boxer, most certainly some distance removed from the plane of prowess of some of the giants of the past.

That Mr. Bradlock should have won what is called the world's heavyweight championship was due not so much to his own claims to fistic skill as to the poor pretensions of his opponent to hold the title. There were more worthy opponents than the new holder to lay claim to a title contest. The selection of Mr. Bradlock came as a surprise, even to the Americans themselves. The result of the championship contest cannot be regarded in the light of a "sensational outcome," as it is characterized by American critics. It was simply a surprise from the standpoint of betting experts, not from the standpoint of the respective skill in boxing of the opponents. The lesson of the fight is that there should be an international commission to govern all so-called world boxing championships. Under such a dispensation it should be possible to arrange the worthiest of title bouts without international animosities in the field of this sport. In any case, greater confidence would be created among the sporting public of the world.

It is more difficult, and calls for heavier energies of soul, to live a martyr than to die one.—Horace Mann.

Good luck is the willing handmaid of upright, energetic character, and conscientious observance of duty.—Lowell.

The happiness of love is in action; its test is what one is willing to do for others.—Law Wallace.

Note and Comment

Everyone takes pleasure in returning small obligations; many so far as to acknowledge moderate ones. But there is hardly anyone who does not repay great obligations with ingratitude.—La Rochefoucauld.

It is easy to criticize methods or systems, not so easy to devise better methods or systems. We know, having been charged with being too free in our criticisms. When thousands of young single unemployed men became wards of governments as the Ontario quintuplets became wards of one Government, the problem arose as to what should be done with or for them. The young men were not idle by their own choice, or at least a large proportion of them were not. They could not be left to suffer for lack of living accommodation or to starve for want of food. On the other hand, they could not be permitted to roam the country begging for their daily bread and possibly a source of annoyance to their neighbors. If they became wards of the Government and charges upon the people some method of keeping a record of them must be adopted, or there would be abuses in the claims for relief. It was because of demonstrated abuses in the indiscriminate system that the system of segregation in camps was adopted. The camp system admittedly is not good, but will the critics nominate a perfect or a better system?

That is the question, and we submit it is a perplexing question. When thousands of young men are herded together, with weeks and months of idle time "on their hands," with nothing to do but think of their grievances against the existing political and industrial system and listen to the counsels of incendiaries, there is bound to be dissatisfaction and unrest. A certain amount of discipline was necessary for the proper administration of the camps. The conduct of the camps has been investigated by a competent and unprejudiced tribunal composed of legal men and laymen, and has been pronounced all that could be expected under the circumstances. Segregation in the camps was not enforced.

The young men were free to leave their objectionable environment at any time in search of employment and to come back again if work could not be found. But that form of liberty was not satisfactory to the speech-makers and organizers. There were rumors of strikes in many parts of the continent, and instead of individual actions mass movements were adopted. There is a certain degree of force in mass movements. The young men decided to strike in a mass for the purpose of impressing governments. They moved in a mass upon the city of Vancouver, and seem to have impressed the emotional elements of the population of that city and the vocally strong Mayor of that city; for they committed lawless acts there and were encouraged when they entered business establishments and destroyed private property.

Human nature is still peculiar, and it always has been. In its original state it was dominated by force, and the idea of the efficacy of force still prevails. The camp strikers as far as they have gone have made their way either by creating sympathy or exercising intimidation. Probably they would not have gone so far if they had not roused more sympathy by their appeals than any fear they created by intimidation. But some of their actions have been outside of the law. They broke the law when they boarded railway trains and claimed free transportation. To most of them the pilgrimage must have assumed the form of a sort of joy ride or an exciting adventure. No one in a normal state of mind can believe that there could be much fun riding on the roof of a freight car in the nights through the mountains of British Columbia and over the plains of the provinces which lie between the coast and Ottawa.

But consider the futility of it all. Justice cannot be obtained or wrongs made right by flouting authority. Pilgrimages of a like character have been made to other places, including Ottawa and Washington, with no result except physical pain and privation and mental disappointment. The British Columbia pilgrims are not likely to reach Ottawa. If the province had dealt properly with them, they should never have reached the boundaries of British Columbia. Ottawa can do no more for them than it has been doing. The unemployed are virtually wards of the Government. The Government has assumed the obligation of making provision for those who cannot find work until the advent of better times when there may be work for all; but the Government is also representative of all the people, and it is upon all the people that the cost of maintenance of the unemployed must ultimately fall. If the burden of carrying the idle in the camps and out of the camps becomes greater than the taxpayers can bear, there will be a serious crisis in the affairs of Canada. Emotional but ill-informed persons who sob when they discuss the situation of persons, young and old, who cannot find an occupation, probably have but a dim idea of the millions of dollars the taxpayers of Canada have contributed in the form of relief. And if abuses had not been checked, the consequences might have been ruinous.

Mr. Fred Landsberg
By D. O. TUCKWELL
A few months ago the writer had occasion to apply to The Jewish Transcript, a paper published in Seattle, a brief character sketch of the man who has now been gathered to his fathers, leaving a void in the community which it will be hard indeed to fill. I should like to take this opportunity of amplifying to some little extent the tribute paid on that occasion to the memory of our departed friend.

May I relate an amusing incident which occurred some little while ago as the writer was standing with Mr. Landsberg in the latter's well-known garden on Niagara Street. An incident which may tend to throw some light upon that gentleman's character.

As we were discussing mutual garden problems, a lady visitor to the club came along the street and stood admiring the flowers and vegetables upon which Mr. Landsberg had devoted so much care and skill. "Would you like a few flowers, madam?" inquired Fred. "Indeed I would," replied the fair visitor. Whereupon Mr. Landsberg proceeded to gather the very fairest of his blooms, and that in no niggard spirit, and handed a bouquet of beautiful blossoms to the lady. "Thank you! Thank you!" gushed the fair one, in rapturous tones. "You are indeed a Christian!" "Excuse me, madam," replied Fred, with an amused chuckle, "I am not a Christian; in fact, I am not more than a poor Jew!"

"A Jew, a Jew," exclaimed the lady. "Well, then, all I can say is that you are the most generous Jew that I ever knew!"

This comment of the fair visitor to our city might be justly adopted as the universal expression of all those who have had dealings with our friend. For more than fifty years he has lived in this community, doing justly, loving mercy, walking humbly. His generosity has known no boundaries of race, or rank, or creed.

I was taught from my earliest years the duty of service and sacrifice; he has lived in this community, doing justly, loving mercy, walking humbly. His generosity has known no boundaries of race, or rank, or creed.

The suffering, the sorrowing, the needy of any kind have lost in him a friend whom they will sorely miss in the dark days that are to come. No duty was too exacting; no call for help ever fell on deaf ears; no personal business was ever allowed to hamper his devotion to the cause of the oppressed. Where Fred Landsberg was concerned, he may have belonged to an alien race that is anathema to Herr Hitler, but he practiced, as very few in this community have ever realized, the true spirit of the brotherhood of man; he may not have subscribed to any of the narrow sectarian creeds, but his charity was deep and widespread. None will ever realize the many and insistent calls that were made upon his time, his temper and his purse.

The inmates of the Old Men's Home; the aged and infirm women; the suffering children in Armenia; the blind, the deaf, the halt, the lame, the helpless of whatever kind, have lost in Fred Landsberg a friend indeed in every time of their need.

Let the testimony of the fair respondent of Mr. Landsberg's floral bounty stand as a fitting and permanent epitaph to the memory of our "Mutual Friend." "The most generous Jew that I ever knew!" And the writer would like to disavow the qualification, and make a slight addition to the visitor's tribute: "The most generous Jew that I ever knew, and not Jew alone, but Gentle, too."

May the grass grow green and the roses bloom and roses fall. Roses, sweet, fragrant, rare; roses, roses, everywhere.

Roses smile 'neath Summer sky. Roses bright and roses fair. Roses comfort, roses cheer. Roses calm my anxious fear.

Sweetest roses all in bloom. Radiant roses, sweet perfume. Roses fragrant, roses gay. What more beautiful than they?

Then may I, as the roses bright, Shine in my sphere, enjoy the light. And when removed from below May I in Heaven's fair garden grow.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY
(From The Daily British Colonist of June 15, 1885)
New Village—There being erected in the city and its immediate vicinity at the present time, several handsome villa residences, which in many instances will be occupied by the owners. Sheriff McMillan is having a new two-story residence built on Cormorant Street, and James Mann is erecting a villa on Bay Street.

Strawberries Ready—Some of the finest berries that have been in the market are the ones supplied from the "Richmond," just outside of Victoria. These are of the mammoth variety, and of a delicious flavor.

From the Interior—Mr. Cowan, who returned from Cariboo on Thursday, brings news in reference to the mining operations in that district. The Big Bonanza claim, on Lightning Creek, through which the water broke, is again being worked with increased vigor, and in William's Creek good pay was being taken out. Bridge River miners report that they are doing very well, as also those on Kibby Creek, north of the 146-mile post. The crops in the Lillooet and Cariboo districts are in splendid condition, and give promise of a most abundant yield. The latter part of May in Lillooet, new potatoes, green peas, and strawberries were abundant.

SEEK LOAN FOR ROAD REPAIRS

Saanich Applies for $18,000 From Provincial Government for Road Project

As the first step in a planned road repair and relief project, the Saanich Council has applied to the Provincial Government for an $18,000 loan. The funds will be devoted largely to purchasing materials for the work.

In the relief appropriation for the year, totaling $60,000, only a small portion of the money was allocated for materials. In the main the relief allocation was for labor. The scheme to repair major municipal highways somewhat was approved at Thursday's council meeting. Appeals for repairs to "potholes," the greatest trouble on Saanich roads, have been made consistently by ratepayers of Wards Three, Five, Six and Seven.

The work will commence immediately the funds are turned over to the municipal treasury.

The Observation Car

BY THE EDITORIAL STAFF

A Prophet Is Not Without—

The managing editor, on hearing the result of the Baer-Bradlock fight the other night came to me and said, "So Bradford will not be on his feet at the end of the fifth round." Well, I don't blame him the least bit, for if I was ever out in a fight in my life, it was on that occasion at Madison Square. I made a definite prediction in the Observation Car last week, and now I am like Baer, taking it right and left, but not on the chin—right in the face, but verbally. However, from now on I am through picking fight winners, especially in print.—J. D.

Do We Know Our Island?

Members of Victoria Rotary Club at their last meeting were informed by G. Hamilton Harman, manager of the Bank of Montreal, that Victorians are not sufficiently well acquainted with beauty spots on the lower end of Vancouver Island. How can residents of our city and environs talk intelligently and convincingly about the Island's charm unless they themselves have visited the points of interest? How about a series of public lantern slide lectures dealing with places of beauty and historical interest? It would doubtless surprise many of us to find out just how little we know of our own community.—G. B.

Nanaimo's Cook Street!

To Mr. John Barsby, the Mayor of the City of Nanaimo: Having spent a pleasant Sunday in your city and enjoyed the hospitality of some of your citizens, we were prepared to have a very high opinion of your city in general. But we got a rude shock. It was on Commercial Street, we think, and the shock is represented by a deep depression in the pavement of that particular street, and when ridden over in an automobile, passengers soar upwards. We have a sore neck from our last contact with the depression. Depressions always did give a pain in the neck, but the Nanaimo depression can be cured without the aid of an economist. How about it, Mr. Barsby?—R. A. G.

Paging Mr. Disney—

Now, about that hog that escaped at Alta Lake the other day; how would it be if the owner placed the "eats" in a trough, and the trough in the shipping crate? If it would go to the trough; and if it returned to the shipping crate, that would restore the game to where it started, so to speak. One who thinks of a departmental file starting over a poor defenceless hog that may be eaten up by a cougar at any minute. Some files go back to 1861, and then did not bring home the bacon.—S. G.

Well—Perhaps It's an Idea!

Alderman Walter Loney's proposal for the next council meeting is worthy of really serious consideration, now that it is impossible for the council to meet without extending its time, due to wrangling over non-essentials. The chief of police invited the council to participate in a special event arranged for civic officials at the forthcoming revolver competition. Alderman Loney suggested that the council might hold its next meeting at the revolver range. "Maybe we could get through quicker and have a few less obnoxious aldermen," he remarked.—P. C. R.

STREET CAR OR BUS SERVICE?

Sir:—The problem of street maintenance in relation to the B.C. Electric tracks is again an issue, and the wane of the franchise is opportune for a final decision in favor of bus service. A long and costly experience by the city and company has proved that car tracks on public thoroughfares are impractical, destructive, dangerous and costly. The present wrecked condition of many of our best streets is but an item in the aggregate of many years' struggle with this problem.

The following is a summary against the obsolete track system:

1. The wrecking effect of rails on paving or road surface and consequent danger to auto and foot traffic.
2. The menace, nuisance and unsightliness of wires and poles.
3. The clutter of iron wheels on steel tracks, accentuated by rattly old cars.
4. The cause of many deaths and casualties in collision with motor traffic, also due to passengers connecting with cars in middle of street.
5. Destruction by electrolysis as in the case of the years of patching and final entire renewal of the large water main on Hillside Avenue, and the consequent complete wrecking of road bed and paving on this fine trunk thoroughfare.
6. The large capital and maintenance expenditure involved for plant other than rolling stock.

That the B.C. Electric Co. has not renewed its rolling stock in recent years is evidence of foresight and the need of modern bus requirements.

A. J. MORLEY, 1246 Montrose Avenue, Victoria, B.C., June 14, 1935.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

LEAD-DIRECTING DOUBLE

Most players are familiar with the bidding conventions in use among expert players. There are a number of conventions in the play of the cards which are equally important. In some cases these are so closely tied up with the bidding that it is difficult to say whether they are conventions of bidding or of play.

Among the most frequently used bidding signals is the double of a three no trump contract. This has a special meaning when your partner has bid a suit and you later double an opponent's bid of three no trump. If it is your partner's turn to make the opening lead, the double tells him he should open the suit he has bid. Here is how this convention works:

South dealer. Neither side vulnerable.

1. On this type of hand one no trump is a better opening bid in order to show the 4-3-3-3 distribution and the unusual honor trick content of the hand.

2. This overall has little to recommend it, even when not vulnerable.

3. This is a minimum hand on which a bid can be made over an intervening overbid. Without one and a half honor tricks it is better to pass.

4. This double is a most unusual bid and seems strange when one looks at East's terrible bust. East had reasons for his double, however, which in this case proved to be well justified. He knew the club suit could not readily be run because he had so many. And since neither opponent had bid spades, he assumed his strength in that suit was probably well divided with a good share of it being in West's hand. Knowing declarer could set up neither clubs and spades, it was obvious that the heart suit would have to be tackled and in this suit East had a stopper. If West happened to open spades, East's stopper in hearts would give him the lead too late to establish the diamonds, but if West opened diamonds there was a possibility that the suit could be established immediately and produce the winning tricks after East later got in.

With these twenty-six cards, can you make four hearts from the South position? Tomorrow we will show you what really happened.

Urges Women's Forum To Study Productions Of Political Regimes

Hon. Dr. K. C. MacDonald Maintains Canada and Province Have Enjoyed Greater Prosperity Under Liberal Governments

OBJECTION to the shipment into British Columbia, via the Panama Canal, of Eastern Canadian products which, offered at prices possible in the case of surplus manufactures were in serious competition to our own products, was made by the Hon. Dr. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, in the course of a short address he gave to the Liberal Women's Forum yesterday afternoon.

"I am not a secessionist, but I do claim that Eastern Canada will have to recognize that we have built up a civilization here in British Columbia, created social services for our citizens not to be compared with those in any other part of Canada and are facing the problem of providing work and wages for our people," said the speaker.

WOMEN MUST STUDY

Urging the women to study the history of their country, Dr. MacDonald proceeded to give an outline of the relative benefits which had accrued to Canada and the Province of British Columbia under Liberal and Conservative regimes. Under the former, it was maintained, more social legislation had been enacted and better conditions evolved, although it was also argued that the two party titles were sometimes anomalous, the Liberals being in reality the more conservative at times, and the Conservatives running into the Liberal.

In connection with this last claim, the speaker referred to a comparatively recent broadcast of R. B. Bennett, I. B. Bennett, in the absence of television, he could hardly believe that it was the Conservative Prime Minister of Canada who was expounding the policies that sounded so very much like an outline of those upheld by the Liberals.

CANADA PROSPERED

The effects of Liberal government at Ottawa were pictured, beginning with the prosperous period prior to 1911, when commerce and trade were at their peak. With the change of government came a slump, with soup kitchens from Halifax to Victoria following the introduction of protection. Both in the Dominion and British Columbia, Dr. MacDonald maintained, this adverse condition had followed a change away from Liberal government, concluding with the present Bennett Government, which had cut the connection that had been established with all the ports of the world in Gibbon as a compensation, and matters of outstanding trade, and resulted in an adverse balance.

"Sometimes Liberal governments are really reactionary and come out with policies that are in effect conservative. Whether a Liberal policy it Ottawa would prove acceptable to Western Canada remains to be seen," the Minister of Agriculture admitted. "The worst condition that could befall the country would be the establishment of the extreme radicalism of socialism or communism. The advent of such control would mean the perishing of civilization as the generation of today knew it."

HONEST THINKING

"We must inculcate into the minds of the people of this Province honest and clear thinking which will lead to the re-establishment of liberalism in Canada, the development of closer co-operation between East and West, and the development of trade and commerce such as has not been experienced for the last four or five years," Dr. MacDonald said in conclusion.

Mrs. J. S. Akins, the president, was in the chair, and expressed the thanks of the meeting to the speaker.

Routine business included the report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Edwards. Among the communications was a letter from Miss Mary Appleton, secretary of the United Empire Loyalists, requesting the support of the Forum in the United Empire Loyalist opposition to the proposed Hornby land settlement scheme. The Forum endorsed this, expressing the opinion that this was not the time to allow any increase of immigration, as there were plenty of young people already in the country if any were needed on the land.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

The entertainment programme was very pleasing, Mrs. W. A. Langling singing "Songs My Mother Taught Me" (Dvorak) and Brahms' "Cradle Song," with violin obbligato by E. A. Manning, and Mrs. E. C. Goev giving a charming recitation of one of Pauline Johnson's Indian legends.

Mrs. P. J. Gavey gave an excellent report of the last meeting of the Local Council of Women, elaborating on

ACCIDENT FATAL AT COMOX CAMP

Young Courtney Man, Only Four Months Married, Killed by Rolling Log

COURTENAY, June 14—Frederick George Tuddenham, twenty-six, was struck and killed about 1 o'clock Thursday while working on the cold deck at Comox Logging Company's lake camp. At Coroner Dr. J. McKee's inquest at Courtenay today a verdict of accidental death was returned. Mr. Tuddenham was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tuddenham, of Courtenay. He was married to Miss Grace Ward last February.

Among recommendations of the commission, the State Secretary continued, was abolition of non-par-value shares or crediting to capital account everything received from their sale. The Government did not accept recommendation to abolish non-par-value shares because it considered the public was protected under existing laws.

The alternative suggestion was not accepted because it was believed premiums paid for non-par-value stock belonged to the shareholders and should not be added to non-distributable accounts.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The bill did not contain a recommendation of the commission that annual reports be published in the Canada Gazette. It would mean 10,000 reports published at a cost to the companies of $3,000,000. If the reports were published in newspapers, the cost would be $1,500,000. Mr. Cahan said he had received many protests against a clause of the bill compelling annual statements to show executive salaries and all payments from the company. He believed this should be limited to public companies.

The recommendations of the price spreads commission to require publication of a statement in lieu of a prospectus was not followed, said Mr. Cahan, because such statements could often be used to defraud.

Speculation by directors in the shares of their own companies was prohibited in accordance with the report. This involved a definition of the word speculate which Mr. Cahan said was difficult.

Companies Act Is Given Endorsement On Second Reading

Federal Measure Resulting From Price Spreads Commission Report Presented by Secretary of State—Will Accept Amendments

OTTAWA, June 14—Proposed with some depreciation by Hon. C. H. Cahan, Secretary of State, amendments to the Dominion Companies Act, based on the report of the Price Spreads Commission, received second reading in the House of Commons tonight.

Mr. Cahan explained some proposals of the commission had just been carried into effect and while others were embodied in the bill he had doubts of their value. The bill was presented to the House with a view to giving effect, as completely as possible in order to lay the question before the House. He said he was authorized to state Conservative members were free to propose any amendments they chose.

PUBLIC PROTECTION

Among recommendations of the commission, the State Secretary continued, was abolition of non-par-value shares or crediting to capital account everything received from their sale. The Government did not accept recommendation to abolish non-par-value shares because it considered the public was protected under existing laws.

The alternative suggestion was not accepted because it was believed premiums paid for non-par-value stock belonged to the shareholders and should not be added to non-distributable accounts.

Better Days Are Accompanied by More Travelers

With better times in New Zealand has come an increase in the tourist business. The Dominion is reaping a good harvest from the many Canadians and Americans, who are being drawn there to see the country, according to Roderick MacRae, retired chief forester for Rotorua, who is visiting at the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. MacRae is in Canada to study the methods used for reforestation, which work is interesting New Zealand at the present time. Yesterday he visited P. Z. Caverhill, head of the British Columbia forestry service. Today Mr. MacRae plans to go to Campbell River.

In recent years, New Zealand has planted much Oregon spruce taken from this coast, the visitor explained. Large tracts of land, unsuitable for cultivation, have been used to grow trees. Much of the spruce timber is used for making butter boxes, Mr. MacRae said.

SAYS CRIME ON INCREASE

Larger Number of Prison Offences Declares Judge MacGill

MONTREAL, June 14—Formation of the Penal Association of Canada was decided here today at the sessions of the Canadian Penal Congress, following suggestions made by Prof. F. R. Scott, McGill University.

While Canada's population has risen only about 20 per cent, our jail population has swelled 70 per cent, Helen Gregory MacGill, judge in the Vancouver Juvenile Court, told the congress. This was partly due to economic conditions, where offenders could not pay fines, but crime was steadily increasing, she said.

CRIME IS COSTLY

Cost of crime in Canada was estimated at $17,500,000 annually, not counting damage done to the victim or the prisoner's family. If the intention of imprisonment was revenge, the cost was too high. "Systems that neither lessen crime nor the number of criminals are extremely costly and wickedly wasteful," Judge MacGill said. She urged the basis of imprisonment should be to deter further crime, to protect society and to correct the criminal.

The number of prison offences had increased enormously, she said, and every one convicted was sent to the common jail to sit in idleness and often in filth. "It is incredible to assume that the young girl shoplifter and the keeper of the bawdy house, the boy novice and the habitual criminal will be reformed to the community, better men and women, and deterred from further crime."

TWO PLACES ONLY

Oakalla, B.C., she said, was along with the Prison Farm at Guelph, Ont., the only place where rehabilitation of prisoners was tried. "I am convinced that it can be easily proved that even financially such a system is cheaper than the maintenance of numerous lock-ups, city and county jails, and even the most prejudiced must admit that it is infinitely more likely to effect the real purpose of imprisonment."

FUNERAL TO TAKE PLACE ON MONDAY

Last Rites for Late Frederick Landsberg to Be Held in Odd Fellows Hall

Funeral services for the late Frederick Landsberg, pioneer resident of Victoria, who passed away early Friday morning in St. Joseph's Hospital, will be held on Monday afternoon, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

The remains, which are residing in Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel, will be removed at 10 o'clock Monday morning to the Odd Fellows Hall, 1315 1/2 Douglas Street, where the body will lie in state until 3 o'clock when the service will be conducted by Rabbi Marcus Berner. Interment will be made in the family plot in the Jewish Cemetery.

Mr. Landsberg is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Percy A. Fitzsimmons, of Victoria, and Mrs. T. W. White-Hawkes, of Sausalito, Cal., now in Victoria, and three grandchildren.

PLEA FOR CHARITY

Mr. Landsberg left the following letter, which has been made available for publication through his executors: "To My Executors—With regard to my directions that no flowers be sent by request, in connection with my funeral, it is my desire that any persons who intended to send flowers be urged to donate the cost of same to the Old Men's Home fund, which provides the aged inmates with pocket money. I also request that my executor, William Hodgson Davies, take my place as co-trustee of this fund and act with J. H. Beatty in this capacity. (Signed) FREDERICK LANDSBERG. Witnessed by LILIAN A. PETTMAN."

BALLOT FAVORS INCREASED FEE

Private Duty Nurses in Hospital Will Come Under New Regulation on July 1

At a meeting of the Victoria Graduate Nurses' Association held last night at the Jubilee Hotel, Miss Mifflin in the chair, the matter of the compulsory eight-hour day for private-duty nurses in hospitals, was decided by the counting of the correspondence ballot. The result showed that the great majority of the nurses here favored the proposed regulation, which consequently will go into effect on July 1.

With a view to increasing opportunities for employment among nurses and, at the same time, enabling the public to have the advantages of nursing service which they would not otherwise have been able to afford it, the Victoria Graduate Nurses' Association, about two years ago, assented to a regulation whereby nurses could be engaged for an eight-hour day at $3 or a twelve-hour day at $5.

Experience showed, however, that owing to the intermittent nature of nurses' work $3 was too small a fee. The matter was again brought up for discussion and put to the vote, with the results above noted, whereby the eight-hour day at the $4 fee becomes compulsory in hospitals.

About 140 ballots were sent out, and the returns were overwhelmingly in favor of the new regulation that goes into effect July 1. In discussion preparatory to the ballot, it was shown that Vancouver nurses had been working for some time under regulations similar to those proposed here, and that the system was operating very satisfactorily.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Major Edward Bowers, attaining new radio heights with his amateur hour, is a comforting symbol for those who rather expect to be caught by the down-beat after fifty. When most successful men begin to clear off their desks and shuck responsibilities, he becomes the busiest man of his day.

Despite the pressure of his affairs and the blunders of modern living, the Major remains to all appearances an easy-going gentleman. He is an echo of the Victorian age when there remained leisure in the world, when one could read poetry or spend a week-end in Italy.

Not even intimates understand how he gets so many things done. He has time to putter in his vast flower gardens on his up-the-Hudson estate. And is one of the perpetual hosts at week-end parties and formal dinners in an art-filled town apartment.

He is on dozens of committees and boards of directors, a frequent after-lunch and dinner speaker, and first nighter. Yet is always at his desk at 9 o'clock, managing the affairs of one of the largest movie houses and assembling the endless details of his broadcasts.

OLD COUNTRY CRICKET RACE TIGHTENS UP

Results of Holiday Matches Keep Leading Teams Close Together

LONDON, June 14.—Whitsuntide holiday matches resulted today in a tightening of the competition among leading clubs for top position in the county cricket championship table.

For the second time this week Yorkshire had a first innings defeat chalked against it. The Northern county, however, retains leadership by a scant margin over Warwickshire, Middlesex being in third position only two points behind.

Yorkshire and Warwickshire fought a hard match which concluded today without definite result, the runners-up taking first innings points. Lancashire defeated Kent on the first innings.

Gloucestershire won a smart victory over Leicestershire by 125 runs, while Gloucestershire obtained full points for the first time this season, pulling off a nine-wicket win over Somerset. Essex defeated Nottinghamshire on the first innings, while Middlesex gained a similar victory over Hampshire. Sussex and Northamptonshire tied on the first innings, each team being credited with four points.

The scores: Warwickshire 254 and 221; York 162 and 225 for three wickets; at Birmingham.

Kent 224; Lancashire 338 for five; at Manchester.

Gloucestershire 158 and 179; Leicestershire 97 and 104; at Leicester.

GAME SEASON IS DISCUSSED

Delegates of Fish and Game Associations Meet at Ladysmith

LADYSMITH, June 14.—The Affiliated Fish and Game Association of Vancouver Island met here last night to discuss and make recommendations on dates for open seasons on game birds in full strength were present from Victoria, Duncan, Nanaimo and Ladysmith. Alberni and Cumberland were not represented. Thomas Pitt, of Duncan, who is president of the affiliated associations, occupied the chair, while Kenneth Duncan deputized as secretary in the absence of T. Booth.

The dates of open season for game birds were discussed at length, and the recommendations made were of a minor nature. It was suggested that the season for pheasants be shortened by one week, ending November 17 instead of November 24. No changes were proposed for the limits. Major McNeill's suggestion that recommendations on bird seasons should be made for the particular area in which any local club was interested, was considered impracticable on the grounds that confusion would follow in determining boundaries.

The use of salmon eggs as bait was emphatically condemned by the Victoria delegates, while the Nanaimo representatives maintained that its use should be given the same privilege as prevailed on the Mainland, or that its use as bait should be prohibited entirely throughout the province.

It was finally unanimously decided that a recommendation should be made that the use of salmon eggs, their sale and possession for bait purposes be prohibited in the province.

A proposal will be submitted to the Department, advocating the use of metal tags for rod and gun licence holders.

The non-resident licence fee for fishing in tidal waters will be recommended dropped from $5 to $1 per season, as more in sympathy with the drive to popularize the Island's attractions.

Major McNeill was given power to speak on behalf of the Affiliated Associations in the matter of procuring a larger provincial grant to encourage the natural propagation of game fish. Support was given to the proposals affecting the Velje Creek hatchery, the testing of Kirk and Thiel lakes, and the cleaning and channeling of the small lakes and swamps contributory to the waters of Nanaimo lakes.

The matter of defining dates for the use of dogs in hunting was left over until next meeting, to permit individual clubs to avail themselves of local information.

Vancouver Island Swimmers Will Compete in Meet at Crystal Garden

The cream of Victoria swimmers and divers will compete in the exhibition swimming gala to be staged at the Crystal Garden on July 1. Under the auspices of the Vancouver Island Swimming League, Frank Hyslop, energetic president, announced yesterday. Victoria's interest will centre around the junior events, where it is expected that locally attractive young mermen from the Pacific Club, and Bobby Moss, V.A.S.C. star, will compete. Miss Monica Trump, recently crowned Canadian women's breaststroke champion, is expected to swim in the open division.

President Hyslop stated that at local galas sanctioned by the British Columbia section of the C.A.S.A., races will be divided into two classes, one for affiliated swimmers and another for non-affiliated swimmers.

ST. MARY'S

St. Mary's A.Y.P.A. held a successful "country fair" at St. Mary's Hall on Wednesday. The afternoon there were many and varied attractions, and the day was concluded with a dance for the young people. The proceeds were in aid of the taxes on the church property.

A wealthy man, whose tastefully laid-out gardens were often visited by the public, had an old gardener who was in the habit of sowing special seeds in a garden.

At such times he would, in a hurried, babbling voice, explain the names of the flowers to the visitors. When nearing the exit gate, he would, however, pause and draw special attention to a particular cluster of modest peonies, and then, in a very significant tone, exclaim: "These, ladies and gentlemen, are forget-me-nots!"

Remember When (Twenty-Five Years Ago)

The game for which the fans have been waiting takes place tonight at the Royal Athletic Park, when Cloverdale and North Ward teams face each other in one of the intermediate league lacrosse fixtures.

This will be the first serious encounter these twelve have had. In all that has transpired thus far, the indications have been that when Cloverdale and North Ward face swords the combat would be one just as keen, close and spirited as those weekly engagements between Vancouver and New Westminster.

Unquestionably, as the Victoria West aggregation stands at present both its rivals are head and shoulders above it. North Ward is just about as finely balanced a team as it would be possible to find anywhere. Much the same is true of Cloverdale, consequently when these teams clash a great battle can be expected.

In a local baseball league match played between the Prides and the United Commercial Travelers last evening, the former were successful, winning handsily by the score of 12-6. Good, sharp ball was the order from the umpire's "play ball" until the final inning.

It was expected that the Prides would have rather an easy task climbing over the Travelers to a place of higher eminence in the race for silver, but they had a harder job than was anticipated. The knights of the strip proved no slouches on the diamond. They put up a stiff fight. Their playing, while a little shaky owing, quite apparently to lack of practice, this being their first match, is not at all crude. It will improve as the series proceeds.

Dominion W.A. President Are Married at Tientsin Tells of Women's Work

Mrs. Gilbert Ferrabee, of Montreal, Addresses Large Gathering at Empress Hotel—Scope of Missionary Adventure Makes Appeal

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada met at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Columbia W.A.

In pointing out the various phases of the W.A. work, the speaker emphasized the need for a broad outlook and vision, for in this work women could find scope for all talents.

Mrs. Ferrabee, who for the past eleven years has been Dominion board president, is on her way to the Yukon, and her discourse given during her short stay in Victoria was much appreciated by the large gathering of men and women in the hotel ballroom.

RESUME OF WORK
The subject of her address was "Women's Work in the Church," and traced the growth of the society since it came into being seventeen years ago, and paid great tribute to the founder, Mrs. Robert Tilton, whose vision had become a reality.

There was a spiritual, educational and financial force in this "missionary adventure," Mrs. Ferrabee said, and expressed the opinion that the W.A. should be the only women's organization directly connected with church work, and that there should be no lines of demarcation resulting from so many parochial groups.

"The work of the church is suffering today because missions have been put into watertight compartments," stated Mrs. Ferrabee, adding "the church which has the missionary spirit and is giving of it abundantly to life abroad will be the church of the future."

WOMEN'S OPPORTUNITY
At a time when harmful influences are at work throughout the country, women had a tremendous opportunity for service, Mrs. Ferrabee declared, if the spirit of Christ were to be made manifest. It was the duty and privilege of every Christian woman to make her life as a piece of the great world's mosaic.

"as perfect, as colorful and as radiant as possible." Fellowship, unity of purpose, co-operation and true stewardship were the thoughts which the speaker emphasized.

She spoke briefly of the mission work being done in Housai, Japan and India and stressed the need for medical mission work, especially in India. It was a cause for thankfulness, she stated, that in response to Dr. C. Jackson's statement that a traveling dispensary was badly needed for the work in the Kangra (India) district, the W.A. had raised $1,000 and the additional $1,000 had been donated by a woman doctor in Montreal.

The singing of the Doxology and the National Anthem, played by Mrs. Colin Cummins, brought the meeting to a close.

Ferrabee was introduced by Lady Lake, Columbia Diocesan W.A. president, who spoke in glowing terms of the leadership of Mrs. Ferrabee.

VOICES APPRECIATION
Mrs. C. D. Scholfield, in expressing the appreciation of the audience to Mrs. Ferrabee, added a message of affection which the 90,000 members of the W.A. in Canada feel for their Dominion president, Mrs. W. H. Bell, recording the vote of thanks.

Lady Lake presented Mrs. Ferrabee with a charming corsage bouquet.

Tea was served in the ballroom. The table artistically arranged with pink pyrethrum, being presided over by Mrs. A. J. Doull and Mrs. A. A. Bengough.

C.G.I.T. NOTES

Now that the school holidays are approaching, the thoughts of girls of the C.G.I.T. movement are centring around camp, which is perhaps, the most outstanding and impressive part of the entire girls' work programme. Plans are now well under way for the Victoria C.G.I.T. Leaders' Council from July 16 to 26.

A representative group of the executive and the camp committee decided upon the property which was formerly used by the Bible Students on the Sooke Road as this year's camp site. This property, situated on the main highway, consists of eighty acres, complete with buildings, which will serve as cooking, recreational and sleeping quarters for the girls. There are also nearby facilities for safe bathing.

Only one camp will be held this year, including both intermediate and senior girls. A special senior girls' group will be organized if necessary. The camp will open on Tuesday, July 16 and will continue until Friday, July 26. It is hoped that there will be a large representation of girls in attendance. Further announcement with regard to registration will be made in the very near future through the press.

Wedding Anniversary
Rev. E. A. Mrs. Henry, who was wearing a becoming gown of pearl-grey crepe touched with blue, had asked little Eleanor Ferguson, wearing an adorable cloak of pleated shell pink chiffon, to be in attendance at the door.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor was assisted in the entrance by Mrs. Alexander Duff, Mrs. H. F. McCraney, Mrs. A. G. Creelman, Mrs. Robert A. Mack, Mrs. E. F. Stoner and Mrs. George Hay, of West Vancouver, who presided at the effectively appointed tea table that was spread with a fluted cloth and graced with crimson roses in a crystal bowl.

IF YOU'VE A BABY
Practical Guide for Busy Mothers Sent Free

A concise guide to the treatment of all baby's ills is invaluable to the busy, worried mother who has less than twenty minutes to spare and so many things to do. When baby is sick—what do these symptoms mean? What treatment should be given? Should a doctor be called? In case of accident or sudden serious illness—what should be done for baby while awaiting the doctor? All these questions are clearly answered in the famous "Hints to Mothers," which has aided three generations of mothers.

Easily arranged for quick reference, every disorder of childhood is dealt with in the fewest possible words, so that the information can be grasped at once. "Hints to Mothers" is issued by the makers of the famous Steedman's Powders, the safest and gentlest laxative for children from teething time until four years of age. Made especially for children, Steedman's Powders promote healthy regularity, banish constipation and its attendant ills and relieve colic and simple fevers. Steedman's are especially beneficial to prevent complications at teething time.

A free copy of "Hints to Mothers" along with a sample of Steedman's Powders will be sent to any person writing for them. Address: John Steedman & Co., 504 St. Lawrence Blvd., Montreal. Write for your free copy and sample today.

CHAPTER XXXVI

I caught sight of Dulcinea Bishop passing quickly along the corridor, and I called her and gave her my flask, glad to have it safe from the search the death watch was certain to make.

She said faintly: "I have a knife for Jack—and a file."

"It is too late for such things," I answered. "If you cannot get the keys from your father, there is no hope for us."

She covered her eyes with her hands. Jack called to her; she started violently, turned and went to him.

They stood whispering a long time together.

"Are you listening?" whispered Dulcinea at my grating again.

"Yes," I answered.

"Be ready at seven tonight," she said. "I will open your door."

Mrs. Bishop, whose infant was now very sick, came out, carrying the baby to the prison hospital for treatment.

Bishop demanded his supper at once, and his wife insisted that she must take the child to the hospital without delay. Finally Bishop yielded, cursing.

"Then draw a measure of butter, Dye hear?" he growled at his wife.

But Mrs. Bishop waddled off contemptuously, declaring that he could die of thirst for aught he cared.

Dulcinea stood watching the scene stolidly. Bishop turned on her with an oath, and ordered her to draw his evening cup, and the girl moved off sullenly with flaming cheeks.

When she returned from the buttry with the frothing tankard, the warden drained the measure to the dregs. He handed the empty tankard to his daughter and then smacked his lips with a wayward chuckle.

He choked, gasped, lifted his shaking hand to his mouth and wiped it.

"Curse that ale!" he stammered. "It's sickened me to the bones."

He turned and pushed open his door, lurching forward across the threshold. A moment later Dulcinea passed my cell, her face averted.

I went to my cot and lay down, face buried, teeth set in a grin.

A few moments later a strange movement inside my cell aroused me, and I opened my hot eyes.

I saw a man seated beside my cot, his eyes fixed steadily on me.

Then at last I understood that this grey shape brooding there at my bedside was a guard of the death watch, pledged never to take his eyes from me for an instant.

I rose and began to pace my narrow cell.

The lantern above Bishop's doorway burned brightly; the corridor was quiet. No sound came from Mount's cell.

Presently it occurred to me that I had not seen Bishop since six o'clock when he had gone into his room, cursing the ale his daughter had fetched him.

Suddenly, as I stood at my grating, I saw Dulcinea Bishop step from the warden's door, close it behind her, and noiselessly lock it. She stood there a moment, swaying; then she made a signal towards Mount's cell. The next instant I saw Jack Mount bound noiselessly into the corridor. He caught sight of me, held up a reddened knife, pointed to my cell door, and disappeared a key.

Instantly I turned around and snatched toward my bed. The death watch kept his eyes on me. Pretending to be occupied in rearranging my tumbled bedding, I strove to get partly behind him, but the fellow turned his head as I moved and watched me steadily.

As I hesitated there, holding the blanket in my hands, the lamp in the corridor suddenly went out, plunging my cell in darkness.

The guard sprang to his feet; I fairly flung my body at him, hurling him to the stone floor.

Instantly light flooded my cell again; I heard my iron door opening, I crouched in fury on the struggling man under me, whose head and arms I held crushed under the thick blanket. Then came a long, silent struggle, but at last I tore the heavy pistol from his clutch and beat him on the head with the steel butt of it until his straining limbs relaxed.

Pistol in hand, I rose from the quiet heap on the floor and turned to find my cell door swinging wide and Dulcinea Bishop watching me.

She lifted the lantern from the floor and motioned me to follow. At the end of the corridor Mount stood waiting.

"The trail's clear," he whispered. "Now, lass, where is the scullions' stairway? Blow out that light, Cardigan."

The girl blew out the light and drew me into the darkness. Groping forward, I almost fell down a steep flight of stone steps. Presently a door creaked and a deluge of icy water dashed over me.

It was rain. I was standing outside the prison, ankle deep in mud, the free wind blowing, the sleet driving full in my eyes.

"Oh, this is good, this is good!" muttered Mount in ecstasy.

The girl saluted; her damp disheveled hair blew in her face. Mount bent and kissed her.

"I swear I will be kind to you, child," he said soberly.

"Happy, Jack—happy?" she stammered, raising her white face to his. He swore roundly that he would make her happy.

But suddenly she laughed, turned her bright, feverish eyes on us with a reckless toss of her head, and drew the poison flask from her bosom.

"You think," she said, "that we no longer need this little friend to sorrow. You are wrong."

And ere Mount or I could move, she raised the tiny flask and dropped the dark scarlet contents between her teeth.

"I drink to your freedom, Jack," she said blindly, reeling into Mount's arms. "Your—freedom—Jack," she gasped, smiling. "My father drank to it—in ale. He lies dead on the floor of it. All this—for your freedom, Jack!"

Mount was kneeling in the mud, she lay in his arms, the sleet pattering on her upturned face.

"Free you, freedom," she murmured drowsily—"I would burn forever. But, oh, the torment—the fire in me, Jack!"

Her body writhed and twisted; her great bright eyes never left his. Presently she lay still, lifeless. A moment later the prison bell broke out wildly through the storm, and a gunshot rang from the north guardhouse.

We placed her under a tree in the new grass and covered her face with

LES MISERABLES ON SCREEN HERE

Frederic March and Charles Laughton Co-Starring in Victor Hugo's Novel

Frederic March and Charles Laughton play fugitive and pursuer in the most celebrated of all fictional man-hunts in Darryl Zanuck's Twentieth Century production of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables," which begins a six-day run at the Capitol Theatre today.

March is seen as Hugo's ill-starred young hero, Jean Valjean, who spends five bitter years on a French prison ship for stealing a loaf of bread and then becomes a fugitive from justice by violating his parole. Laughton is Javert, the fanatical detective, whose devotion to the letter of the law drives him relentlessly along the reformed ex-convict's trail.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke, the distinguished English stage and screen star, shares stellar honors with the pair as the benevolent Bishop Bienvenu, whose faith starts the degraded galley slave on the road toward a better life.

Richard Boleslawski directed "Les Miserables" from a screen play by W. R. Lipscomb.

Rochelle Hudson, Frances Drake and John Beal are featured in the supporting cast, which also includes such popular and distinguished

Forest Experimental Station Opens for Season—Youths To Be Trained

LAKE COWICHAN, June 14.—Messrs. E. Garmann, Orr-Ewing and Griffith recently arrived at the lake to open the Forest Experimental Station for the season's work. It is expected that much improvement work will be done in the forest during the summer by the youths, who will later be stationed at various points under the scheme of the Provincial Government for training them in forestry. This work will be in addition to the regular research carried on at the experimental station.

Allan Orr-Ewing, who has been an assistant at the Forest Experimental Station, left on June 5 to continue investigation work at Campbell River.

An advance party of eight men under Charles Schultz, has arrived to prepare camp for the Young Men's Forestry Training Corps, which will be occupied by thirty-five next week. During their stay at the local Forest Experimental Station the youths will work on the improvement of the Cowichan Lake forest, comprising two hundred acres on McKenzie Point and one hundred acres at the North Arm. They will be trained in trail and road building, telephone-line construction, cleanings and thinning in the young Douglas fir forest that is used for demonstration and experimental purposes.

J. A. Parkes is again stationed on the Bald Mountain fire lookout for the Forestry Department and will be on the watch for fires there during the remainder of the fire season. W. G. Griffith has left the Forest Experimental Station to supervise the work of a youths' training camp at Aleza Lake, near Prince George.

A medical officer named Crofts wanted a very senior appointment—that of principal medical officer in the Punjab. He went to Simla to see what he could do for himself, and was granted an interview by Lord Lansdowne, the Viceroy.

He said to Lord Lansdowne: "Boys there is an Irishman, and I'm an Irishman, and it will be a deuced

Colonel Sir David Barr had a different way of approaching viceroyalty. He was resident at Bewal of Gwalior, and wanted some big appointment that was then going. He consequently telegraphed to the viceroy secretary at Simla: "Request His Excellency to refer to Psalm cxxviii, verse 1."

AUTO SALES HAVE GREAT INCREASE

B. R. Muir, of Ford Motor Company, Toronto, is saying Wave on Visit Here

Reporting a fresh buying wave that has caused car sales to soar 100 per cent higher than a year ago, larger export business and a tone of optimism that augurs well for the future, Bryce R. Muir, general sales manager of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, arrived in Victoria yesterday morning after a Dominion-wide tour, and sailed for Seattle in the afternoon.

During his brief visit here, he and his party made their headquarters at the Empress Hotel. With Mr. Muir were P. G. Willey, constructive manager, A. Stanley Ellis, service manager, and Charles A. Smith, of the sales department at East Windsor.

Mr. Muir, in an interview at the Empress Hotel, declared, in his opinion, there was plenty of money in the country, and this could be loaned out when the people were given what they needed. In car manufacturing there had been such new features as streamlines, radio equipment and generally fine performance at low cost.

Speaking of replacements, the sales executive said it was a noteworthy fact that these formed a large percentage of 1933 and 1934 cars, showing that people with automobiles manufactured in recent years, were in a position to buy new machines.

Two Americans were sitting in Central Park, New York. They were evidently strangers to each other, but after a time one of them began to mumble something to himself in a low voice. "I have dreamed this moment all my life," he said. "I knew my hearing was getting worse, but I never thought I should go stone deaf. Here this guy's been talking to me for the last ten minutes and I've not heard a word he's said."

"Talking to you?" retorted the other man. "I wouldn't waste my time! I'm talking to nobody. I'm just chewing gum."

FRIENDLY HELP DRIVE STARTS

Citizens of Greater Victoria Circularized in Campaign for Funds

A circularized appeal has been made to the citizens of Greater Victoria for funds to carry on the work of the Friendly Help Welfare Association of Victoria, British Columbia, and the Friendly Help Welfare Association of the United States. The association is a non-profit organization which is organized to help the needy and the unfortunate. It is a voluntary organization and its members are citizens of the community. The association is organized to help the needy and the unfortunate. It is a voluntary organization and its members are citizens of the community. The association is organized to help the needy and the unfortunate. It is a voluntary organization and its members are citizens of the community.

It is not merely a matter of providing for the material needs of those not eligible for relief, but of supplementing that relief when in cases of illness or large families the relief money is inadequate. There are, unfortunately, many families and individuals whose morale, through stress of circumstances outside their control, has broken down. Where such conditions exist, it is but a step to crime and social disorders, which in the long run throw an additional burden on the taxpayer. "Prevention is better than cure" is an old adage which applies here.

The social case-worker is trained to analyze each case, and by tact and a thorough understanding of human nature to restore to the individual—and through the individual to the family—the lost self-dependence. Each case-worker attached to the Friendly Help Welfare Association of Victoria looks after an average of one hundred such cases per month.

SAVING TO COMMUNITY
If each case-worker succeeds in keeping (a) two average-sized families off relief; or (b) one boy and one girl out of the Industrial School; or (c) two persons out of Ewouda; or (d) one average-sized family from being broken up and the children cared for in public institutions, her salary will have represented a saving to the community.

This appeal is being made primarily to those citizens who did not assist the campaign of October, 1934, but donations, no matter how small and from whatever source they may come, will be gratefully acknowledged if mailed to or left at Campaign Headquarters, Room 3, 640 Port Street. The need is urgent.

A bishop had just been appointed to his diocese when he received a telegram of congratulation from the Mother Superior of a convent nearby. The Sisters wished to present him with a motor, he read, and if he would call, they would have a selection from which he could make a choice. The bishop, desirous of setting out for the convent, visualizing a long string of desirable cars drawn up outside the gates.

Shortly after his departure another message arrived stating, "Telegraphic mistake—'mitre,' not 'motor.'"

The absent-minded man said: "In China, dear friends, human life is regarded as of slight value. Indeed, if a wealthy Chinaman is condemned to death he can easily hire another to die for him, and I believe many poor fellows thus get their living by acting as substitutes."

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

WHY STOMACH CANCER IS NOT RECOGNIZED EARLY

You may wonder why a friend who had apparently little or no stomach pain or distress has to undergo operation for cancer of the stomach. When you think of cancer you naturally think of all the symptoms that should be present—pain, nausea, vomiting of blood, weakness, tiredness—and your friend did not complain of any of these symptoms. Dr. Lewis M. Gaines, Atlanta, Georgia, in The Journal of the American Medical Association, records a case where the only complaint was a "shortness of breath." This difficult breathing came on following a severe coughing spell, which in turn had been brought on by getting out some old dusty prints from a vault. Examination revealed that a cancer of the stomach was the original condition and it had extended to lungs and surrounding tissues so that breathing had been greatly hindered. Thus interference with breathing and not a cancer condition of the stomach caused him to see a doctor.

While this case is most unusual, it tends to show that cancer may exist in the stomach without marked stomach symptoms. Dr. W. C. McCarty, Rochester, Minn., selected at random 100 cancers of the stomach removed by surgery. The symptoms recorded of these 100 cases were pain (dull, sharp, sudden, or burning), weakness, tired feeling, nausea, vomiting, gas, bloating, sour stomach, feeling of fullness, indigestion, and regularity of the symptoms.

Now all these symptoms can be found in many people all the time, in some people part of the time, and everybody once in a while. The point physicians try to remember is that cancer must have a beginning, and in its early stages may not have the definite marked symptoms of cancer—great loss of weight, extreme paleness, blood in the stools, vomiting of blood, swelling of the legs.

What can be done, then, if there are some symptoms, yet hardly enough to consider it cancer? In the middle-aged or those approaching middle-age with persistent stomach symptoms, it would be only good sense to find out whether or not the condition is cancer by means of the X-rays. Not only will this enable the physician to have the cancer, if present, removed safely, but if not cancer, will help him to locate any trouble that might be in the surrounding tissues, that is, in the gall bladder or small intestine.

The story of the New York official who wrote an envelope, "Try England—Island Off Europe" and which ensured delivery of a letter that had been first sent to London, Ontario, has recalled to a correspondent an incident early in his business career.

As a junior in a Manchester office, it was his duty to address envelopes. Having on one occasion to send a letter to an Aberdeen firm named Saint, he addressed it by mistake to Edinburgh. It reached the intended mark, however, for the firm was well known throughout Scotland.

A wag in the Edinburgh Post-office had written on the envelope: "No Saints in Edinburgh; try Aberdeen."

LONDON. — British engineering exports are keeping up. On the electrical side a cable manufacturing company has obtained an order for cables from Australian and from the Indian market for copper wire.

Churches and Their World-Wide Work

MOTHER CHURCH GAINS GROUND

Seventy-Three New Christian Churches Reported During Past Year

The addition of seventy-three new branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, was reported at the annual meeting held recently in Boston. Of these, forty-seven are in North America, seventeen in Europe, two in Asia, two in Africa and four in Australasia. Lecturers have carried the church's message to many parts of the world.

The publication service was reported as being very active and constantly increasing in range and volume. There has been an increase by nearly thirty per cent in the sales of Mrs. Eddy's works over the previous year, and the list of publications, which contained thirty-nine items ten years ago, has risen to more than 200, with plans for thirty more during the next twelve months.

The Christian Science Monitor, the widely-known Boston daily, has a circulation of 136,608, the highest record over a six-month term.

HEALINGS REPORTED
Selected testimonials were read at the annual meeting reporting cases of the healing of distressing diseases. During the past few years of depression, it was stated, Christian Science had come to the rescue of many in bringing about better conditions in their lives.

The new president of The Mother Church is A. Barry Bacon, of Boston, who succeeds Dr. John M. Brewer, associate professor at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Approximately 6,000 persons crowded the great auditorium to the third gallery, overflowing into the original edifice adjoining.

WILL DISCUSS BIBLE TOPICS

Dr. Clem Davies to Answer Queries Sunday Based on Holy Scriptures

"The Cause and Cure of Nervous Breakdown" will be Dr. Clem Davies' theme for his morning message at the 11 o'clock service tomorrow at the Empire Theatre.

At the evening service, Dr. Davies will follow his custom of answering queries sent in during the week. Out of a large number of interrogations, he will select the following for elucidation:

"Are you not placing yourself in the same category as the so-called 'Merchants of Death' when, as a minister of the gospel of peace, you constantly warn your hearers of an alleged forthcoming Armageddon?"

"What do you think of Premier Pattullo's proposal to borrow from the sinking funds for a two-million dollar programme of 'work and wages'?"

"If, in the opinion of some, the Prince of Wales will be Britain's last ruler, and that Our Lord is coming to take the divine kingship, what steps will be taken to place Our Lord on the throne?"

"Can you tell us how to learn to relax?"

"What did Our Lord mean when he said, 'Other sheep have I which are not of this fold'?"

"How about the following apparent injustices in the law of the Lord: The Israelites are forbidden to eat the flesh of dead creatures but are allowed to give or sell dead carcasses to 'strangers'? Also, why is it that for ten generations the illegitimate child and its offspring are not permitted in public assembly? Is not this a gross injustice to the innocent?"

"Can a girl be a true Christian who marries secretly, retaining her maiden name in order that she will not lose her position, and to keep her boy friend out of the relief camp? Is not this deliberate deception and the living of a lie?"

"Is it wrong to cremate the dead?"

"You mentioned in a previous discourse that the Scriptures definitely condemned prophetically the League of Nations. Can you give any extended passage of Scripture, not an isolated text, which seems to read to this effect?"

"Do you not believe, in view of the increasing crime and lawlessness among those nations which have discarded the reading of the Bible in the schools, that we Anglo-Saxons should, regardless of alien religious interests, include the reading of the Scriptures in the curriculum of the public schools?"

"Why should a quarrel in Vancouver between striking longshoremen and a few employers be permitted to endanger the larger interests of commerce and the living of an infinitely larger group? Why is the Government so impotent in such a crisis?"

Picknickers and campers may come dressed informally.

REVIVAL CRUSADE WILL OPEN HERE

Evangelist M. S. Cairns to Begin Special Services Tomorrow at Bethel Gospel Assembly Hall

Evangelist Millard S. Cairns, formerly of Los Angeles, will be the guest preacher at the Sunday services of the Bethel Gospel Assembly Hall, beginning a series called "The Bible Revival Crusade," also conducting services daily, except Saturday, at 2:30 and 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Cairns is a world traveler, lecturer and writer, as well as evangelist, having recently made a research tour of Bible lands, returning with hundreds of beautifully colored slides, which he presents with his lectures, as well as costumes and curios.

There will be an inspirational Bible study hour at 2:30 o'clock daily from Tuesday to Friday, the theme of which will be "The Abundant Life." The evangelist also gives a series of intensely interesting talks for boys and girls.

The Sunday subjects are: 11 a.m., "Paul's Heavenly Vision and the Church Today"; 3 p.m., "Hitler, the Jews and Bible Prophecy, or What Is the Hidden Hand?"; 7:30 p.m., "The Greatest Sentence That Was Ever Written."

WILL LECTURE ON THE DIVINE LAW

Mrs. E. W. Abraham to Show British-Israel Estimate of Statistics of Moses Tuesday Night

"The Divine Law" will be the title of an address to be given by Mrs. E. W. Abraham at the regular meeting of the Victoria and District Association of the British-Israel World Federation (Canada) next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Foresters' Hall.

Mrs. Abraham will draw a comparison between the provisions for the spiritual and material welfare of the people embodied in the laws and statutes delivered to Moses at Mount Sinai and the systems and practices that are common at the present time.

She will show how the adoption of those laws and statutes would automatically do away with the existing state of distress and chaos.

God as the Preserver Is Subject

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the lesson-lesson in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The golden text is: "The Lord giveth wisdom: He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of His saints" (Proverbs II, 6 & 7).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson is the following from the Bible: "Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on Me, believeth not on Me, but on Him that sent Me" (John XII, 44).

The lesson-lesson also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good."

The state officials of Japan have ordered revision of the Japanese constitution of 1889. The Anglican and Episcopal Prayer Book, in which the supplication, "O Lord, Save the King," appears as a prayer for the salvation of the Emperor of Japan, it seems that this smacks of lese majeste and must be altered.

The blow, which decided the mound battle between Chagnon and Paul Derringer came in the second inning. Jim Bottomley blasted a line single towards first. Then Gilly Campbell, rookie catcher, hummed one into the lower right field stands for a home run.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
CHICAGO, June 14 (AP)—A home run by Relief pitcher Ed Linko, with two on in the eleventh, today gave Washington a three-hour-and-fifteen-minute extra-inning, extra-base hit slugfest, 16 to 11, from the White Sox before a ladies' day crowd of 18,000.
Two other runs followed Linko's homer, the fifth circuit out of the game, to clinch for the Senators their second victory in the finale of the five-game series.
After Washington had driven Carl Fischer, Chicago starter, from the mound and continued against Johnny Salveston, who was making his White Sox debut, for seven runs on four hits and three passes in the second inning and then increased its lead to 8 to 0 in the third, the Sox fought their way back to an 11-to-11 tie in the eighth. Al Simmons hitting a home run with the bases loaded off Relief Pitcher Delie Dean to drive in the tying runs.
It was the second time during the series that Simmons drove out a homer with the bases loaded in the late innings, to tie up a game, and the Sox subsequently lost both games. This homer was his eighth of the season.

Former Champ Agrees to Battle Carnera or Louis

Max Baer Comes Out of Retirement Idea Already and Verbally Decides to Meet Winner of Bout Set for June 25—No Investigation Will Be Held Over Fight

B. EDWARD J. NEIL, Age and Press Sports Writer.
NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—As Jimmy Braddock basked blissfully today on top of the heavyweight heap, with no fighting to do until he tackles Max Schmeling a year from now, Max Baer, defeated champion, came out of the short retirement on record to accept a match this Saturday with either Joe Louis, Detroit Negro, or Primo Carnera, former champion he once demolished.

PRIMO CARNERA

Baer, after X-rays showed he had suffered injuries to both hands last night as Braddock, in an astonishing upset victory, battered the heavyweight crown from his side.

They sat on the top of the fight world today—Braddock, the new champion, and his manager, little Joe Gould—outside Jimmy Johnson's office in Madison Square Garden, grinning, happy at the smile of fortune.

Across the town, Max Baer, his way in the home of friends, realization just beginning to penetrate his happy-go-lucky mind that his most prized possession, his title, was gone, and with it a lot of the friends who had moved in immediately on Braddock, the depression-riddled ten-to-one shot who did the impossible.

So while the fight mob milled around the simple man, Baer, almost alone, had his hand X-rayed, and Dr. Leo Michel, a good friend, found a chip fracture in his left hand, indications of a fracture in the right hand, suggested swellings and old injuries.

London, Paris and Berlin papers called by trans-Atlantic telephone to interview Braddock, the big Irishman who doesn't have twenty words to say in an hour. From all over the world the radio pot boiled with plans for his future.

The fight world recovered slowly from the stunning surprise of Braddock's victory, biggest upset in heavyweight history, but its voice rose in one great chorus of acclaim for the gallant punch-worn veteran of twenty-nine who refused to be licked. They agreed the fight wasn't much, but the story was great, that Braddock won decisively, that Baer fought like a Tyro who might be a fair valuation of him at that.

NO INVESTIGATION

General John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, quickly scotched reports, widespread by disgruntled gamblers, the fight had not been fought on its merits and would be investigated.

"Such rumors are pure bunk," he said, "there will be no investigation. Braddock's only worry was what to get for the kids."
"I've talked so much about bringing the title home," he said, "they think it's something to play with. I've got to find something that looks right or they'll be disappointed."

BERLIN, June 14 (AP)—Gottfried von Cramm sent Germany away to an early lead in the European zone Davis Cup tennis semi-finals with Australia today, defeating Jack Crawford in straight sets, 6-3, 7-5, 6-2.

Touring Footballers Head For Old Country—Mills Headed Scorers

MONTREAL, June 14 (AP)—Their record unblemished after a four tour of Canada and the United States, seventeen top-ranking Scottish footballers were headed home tonight. They sailed this morning on the liner Duchess of Richmond.

Thirteen victories in as many starts were credited to the Scottish Association representatives. Outscoring their opponents nearly nine to one, the tourists registered 68 goals against 8.

Scoring honors went to William Mills, agile inside left of the visiting team. The youthful Aberdeen forward netted fourteen times.
David Wilson, Hamilton Academicals, and Hugh Gallacher, Derby County, alternated in the centre-forward position, netting twenty-one goals between them. Wilson scored eleven, while his veteran international colleague netted ten. "Daisy" Duncan, Derby County's corner kicker extraordinary, and William Miller, Patrick Thistle, tied with eight each.

Although he actually scored only seven times, Tommy Walker, Heart of Midlothian ace, made it clear why he is the most sought-after player in the game today. Only nineteen years old, he is a master strategist, and many times the ball was found in the net through his brainy manoeuvring.

KEN REID CAPTURES ANNUAL RACE AFTER SHOWING FINE FORM

Seventeen-Year-Old Class "B" Pedal-Pusher Makes Fastest Time Around Course to Take Possession of Morning Newspaper Silverware—Robinson Wins Class "A"

Pedaling his machine over the eight-and-one-half-mile course in twenty-one minutes thirty-six and four-fifths seconds, forty-six seconds faster than Morris Robinson, Vancouver rider and "A" class winner, Ken Reid, seventeen-year-old Victoria cyclist, riding in "B" class, yesterday evening won the prized Colonist Cup, major award in the thirteenth running of the historic Colonist bicycle road race.

The victory was the second successive that a "B" class rider has scored and the third since the inauguration of the popular event thirteen years ago. Last year Neil Duval, blond-haired Royal Oak speed demon, riding in the "B" class, lifted the major award. His time was exactly eleven seconds slower than the winner's time last night.

SPILL NEAR FINISH

A spill near the finishing line, which resulted in Archie Moore, Victoria, and Bill Taffie, Glen Post, second, and Morse Hatt, Jr., the youngest rider in the event, was the third. The time was twenty-seven minutes two and one-fifth seconds. Morris Robinson, Vancouver rider, also annexed the Wilkerson Cup, which used to be the rider cutting down last year's time in "A" or "B" classes by the largest margin. The Vancouver cyclist cut fifty-one and four-fifths seconds off last year's time for the "A" event.

With the times in "C" "D" and "E" classes being slower than in 1924, the Victoria Cycling Club, Inc., was rushed to the St. Joseph's Hospital in the police ambulance.

The latest report from the attending physician stated that Moore had severe bruises on the arms and hips and is in considerable pain. Dr. Grant stated that if the pain is still bad this morning X-ray pictures will be taken. The boy is resting comfortably and is being attended by Dr. Grant and Dr. G. F. Ayward.

Archie Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore, 177 Maddock Avenue, and is fifteen years of age. At the time of the mishap, Moore and Taffie were well up and with any kind of a break would probably have been in the winning class.

WINS COLONIST CUP

Riding like a veteran all the way, Ken Reid, seventeen-year-old Victoria youth, scored a great victory and carried off the Colonist Cup, leading the field as the riders reached Seven Oaks. Reid dropped back to third position, where he stayed until the sprint home, when he noosed out "Chuck" Warren by half a wheel in a spectacular finish. Harold Whitehead, Royal Oak, was a close third.

Morris Robinson, Vancouver pedal-pusher, carried off the honors in the "A" class in another great finish. With the riders bunched for the greater part of the distance, John Newman, Saanich, had a slight lead at Seven Oaks. Glen Robbins sneaked to the front as the riders passed the Saanich Health Centre, but Newman came to the fore again as the field reached Lake Hill. They were close together for the remainder of the distance, and when they came down the Quadra Hill they hit a terrific speed as they fought gamely for the lead. Crossing Hillside Avenue well together, the riders crossed the finish line.

With motorcycle officers from the British Columbia Provincial, Saanich and city police force patrolling the course, the riders were afforded every safety, while at the starting point a staff of officers under Inspector Boulton handled the thousands of spectators and kept the finishing line clear. Victoria Motorcycle Club placed its machines at the disposal of the Colonist.

Officials carried out their duty in fine style and are to be congratulated on the way in which they handled the event. Dowell's Transfer again supplied a truck to pick up riders who dropped out of the race, while Scott & Peden provided the truck for displaying the trophies.

Lookout stations were established at Seven Oaks, Saanich Health Centre and Lake Hill, and reports telephoned in from these stations were broadcast over the public address system by W. J. Herbert, official announcer. The public address system was installed by the Victoria Amplification Service.

PREMIER PRESENTS PRIZES

Following the finish of the race, H. T. Matson, president of The Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, spoke briefly, and Premier T. D. Pattullo presented the prizes. Before handing out the many handsome awards, Premier Pattullo paid a tribute to The Colonist for the staging of such an event and extended his personal thanks for being asked to officiate. Officials of the race stated yesterday evening that special prizes will be secured for Archie Moore and Bill Taffie, who were injured in the spill at the finish of the "C" class event.

All competitors enjoyed a swim at the Crystal Garden pool as guests of the management. Out-of-town riders were given the use of the Y.M.C.A. through the courtesy of F. Paulding, secretary.
Morse Hatt, Jr., won the contest donated by Charlie Burr's Pharmacy for the youngest rider finishing the course.

the riders continued to fight for the honors and in a driving finish, Morris Robinson came home in front. Frank Watson, Victoria, was a close second, and Peter Tyson, Victoria, was third. The times were twenty-two minutes twenty-two seconds.

George Bell copped the "C" class honors in another good finish. Bill Ooley, Royal Oak, was second, and Barry Hall, Saanich, was third. The winner's time was twenty-four minutes one-fifth second.

Hugh Newman, Victoria youth, scored an impressive victory in the "D" class for riders under fourteen years of age, when he came home in a burst of speed. Roy Bell was close behind in second place, and Alan Duval, Royal Oak, was third. The time was twenty-six minutes twenty-eight and one-fifth seconds.

First place in the "baby" class for riders under thirteen, went to Gordon Perkins, Billy Trace was second, and Morse Hatt, Jr., the youngest rider in the event, was third. The time was twenty-seven minutes two and one-fifth seconds.

Morris Robinson, Vancouver rider, also annexed the Wilkerson Cup, which used to be the rider cutting down last year's time in "A" or "B" classes by the largest margin. The Vancouver cyclist cut fifty-one and four-fifths seconds off last year's time for the "A" event.

LITTLE MARGARETH CARTER of Stephenville, Texas, Age 26 Months WON FIRST PRIZE IN A BABY HEALTH CONTEST AFTER UNDERGOING 25 OPERATIONS.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
The True Father of the American Navy—John Barry, of Ballyscamp, Ireland (1739-1803), was a shipmaster in Philadelphia when the Revolution became imminent, and volunteered his ships and services to the services in 1783. Congress accepted, and from that day until death terminated his services in 1803, he was the senior or ranking officer of his ship and squadron.
As the first captain of the first battleship, named the Lexington, after the first battle of the Revolution (fought at Lexington, April 19, 1775), he was the first to carry the American flag to victory on the ocean, when he captured the armed British tender, Edward, April 7, 1776. By a curious coincidence, he also fought the last battle and fired the last shot of the Revolution. This battle he fought as the Commander of the Alliance with the British frigate, Sybilie, in March, 1783. Peace was declared April 11, 1783. When the present navy was founded, Barry received Commission No. 1, of the very first record book of the U.S. Navy Department. At the outbreak of the war of 1778 he refused a British offer of 20,000 guineas and the command of a British frigate, if he consented to desert the American cause.

Uplands Club Member Displays Great Form in Scoring 3 and 1 Decision Over Young Oak Bay Aspirant—Miss Fletcher Wins First Flight—Wind Sweeps Over Course

CONQUERING a stiff wind, which at times reached gale-like proportions, and at the same time playing her shots with precision, Mrs. E. Jackson reversed the decision of three years ago at the Uplands over Miss Marjorie Todd, young Oak Bay Club shotmaker, in the women's city golf championship final, yesterday afternoon, at the Oak Bay links in the scheduled eighteen-hole tussle, 3 and 1. In 1932 the same pair met argument on the long seventeenth hole, to lift the crown she captured in 1933.

WINNING GOLF

Mrs. Jackson played winning golf on the last nine, and coupled with her tournament experience and Miss Todd's faulty work on the carpets, came through brilliantly. Runner-up in the medal round on Monday, the Uplands player climaxed a week of fine golf for the simple reason that at times she had some tough hurdles to get over.

Missing a short putt for a half, Mrs. Jackson lost the first hole to Miss Todd's one over par figure. Mrs. Jackson carried the short second green, while her opponent's tee shot fell short and then she overplayed the pin and putted back to the lip of the cup with a half stymie facing her. Mrs. Jackson won the hole with a par three. Miss Todd smacked a long tee shot at the third to outdrive Mrs. Jackson. A bunker caught Miss Todd's second and her third was on, but well short. Mrs. Jackson was on in three, then rimmed the cup to lay nearly a dead stymie and she won the hole with a five.

Mrs. Jackson had a poor drive against a stiff wind from the fourth tee, while Miss Todd was far down the centre. Both were on the far side of the green in three and the hole was halved in five. Two straight drives sailed off the fifth tee, but Mrs. Jackson's spade mashie found the bunker in front of the green and she barely got out when her ball was nearly buried in the sand. Miss Todd canned a long putt for a fine four to win the hole and square the match.

HITS LONG DRIVE

The Oak Bay player put everything she had into a long tee shot at the next hole and outdrove Mrs. Jackson by fifty yards and her second, an iron, reached the far edge of the apron and she put her third tend to the pin to win the hole with a four to Mrs. Jackson's five. Miss Todd's drive at the seventh was pin high, just off the green to the right, while her opponent was a little short. Miss Todd approached too strongly, while Mrs. Jackson was still short with her second and the hole was halved in three. Miss Todd landed on the short eighth green with an iron, thirty feet past the flag, while Mrs. Jackson was short, in front of the trap, guarding the green. However, Mrs. Jackson made a great approach three feet from the cup, but missed her putt to lose the hole to Miss Todd's three, which put the Oak Bay contender, two up.

Both were short of the next green, but the hole was halved in four, and Miss Todd headed down the back stretch still nursing a two up lead. At the tenth both players had a bit of luck as their drives went into the rocks at the right but managed to bounce out on the fairway. Miss Todd's second found a broom bush on the left, and after taking two to get out and going into a trap, picked up, conceding the hole. A pair of fives halved the eleventh and then Mrs. Jackson squared the match at the 52nd.

MISS TODD SLIPS
Miss Todd overplayed the flag at the thirteenth from a tough position and she lost the hole to Mrs. Jackson's par three. The Oak Bay player went off to the right near the fence at the next hole while Mrs. Jackson's drive landed in a sand pit, but the hole was halved in four to leave the 1933 champion, still one up. The next hole was also halved, this time in five, and then Mrs. Jackson became dormie two when she won the sixteenth, when Miss Todd caught a bunker with a second iron shot. Mrs. Jackson played a beautiful second iron to the far side of the green and got her par four, after Miss Todd had rimmed the cup for a half.

The next hole saw the finish of the battle put up by Miss Todd. Both reached the green in three with Mrs. Jackson inside of her opponent. Knowing that she had to sink the long putt facing her to stay in the running, Miss Todd stepped up boldly and went for the hole. Her ball ran over the cup and then she missed the next one to give Mrs. Jackson the hole and the match, 3 and 1.

WINS FIRST FLIGHT

Miss Dorothy Fletcher, Uplands Club, played good golf in winning the first flight honors from Mrs. E. D. Todd, Oak Bay, 5 and 4. Following the matches, J. E. "Joe" Wilson, genial president of the Victoria Golf Club, presented the championship trophy and other prizes to the various flight winners and runners-up. He congratulated each and every one, especially the newly-crowned titleholder on her great victory.

MRS. MOODY IS DEFEATED

Comeback Campaign of U.S. Tennis Star Halted by Miss Stammers

LONDON, June 14 (AP)—Helen Wills Moody suffered the first defeat of her tennis comeback campaign today, bowing to Katherine Stammers, third ranking British star, 6-0, 6-4, in the semi-final round of the Kent championships.

Pacing the sternest test of a campaign that had brought her eight successive victories in England, Mrs. Moody found herself outmatched by Miss Stammers, left-handed holder of the British hard court championship.

Miss Stammers used her backhand to make openings for winning drives and was helped no little by the fact that the Californian lacked her usual accuracy. Mrs. Moody overdrove the baseline by yards on several occasions.

WHY IS IT A SARDONIC GRIN? A sardonic grin is not one which is mischievous. Rather, it is derisive, malignant, sarcastic. Although the muscles of the physiognomy are contracted with the apparent aspect of gaiety or laughter, the true underlying feelings are belied.

The source of the expression tells the story. For we have it after the so-called herba sardonia, a certain plant of Sardinia.

This herb is so bitter that when it is eaten, it causes a sardonic grin.

Hester had been in a railroad accident. The lawyer had just called. "What you-all want?" she asked. "I've come," said the lawyer, "to assist you in getting damages." "Damages, my foot!" shouted Hester. "I done got all the damages I wants—what I craves is repairs."

The special music at the morning service includes a solo, "Like as the Hart" (West), by Miss Isobel Crawford, and an anthem, "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes" (Clarke-Whitfield), by J. C. Warren and the choir. During the evening service Mrs. J. T. Keating will sing "Our Loving Father" (Teresa de Riego), with violin obligato by Mr. Arthur, and the choir will render the anthem "O Ye That Love the Lord" (Coleridge-Taylor).

normal to Normal"

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, corner Douglas and Broughton Streets, Rev. S. B. Hillocks, LL.B., of Calgary, will preach Sunday morning on "From Abnormal to Normal," continuing his series of sermons on "The Problem of Sin." In the evening his subject will be "God's Workmanship."

In the morning Miss May Zala will sing "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord" (Bernard Hanblien), and the choir will sing Berthold Tour's anthem, "I Waited Patiently for the Lord." In the evening Miss Ethel Hale will sing "Jesus, Thy Boundless Love," composed by Jesse A. Longfield. The evening anthem will be "As Now the Sun's Declining Rays" (James).

WILL GIVE INNER INTERPRETATION

Dr. T. C. Hipp to Speak Sunday on Woman at Well and on Describing God

The services at the Unity Fellowship on Sunday will be conducted by Dr. T. C. Hipp. The subject title for the morning service will be "The Woman at the Well—Its Esoteric Meaning." The 7:30 o'clock subject will be "Man's Effort to Paint the Picture of God."

The morning subject is the second of a series of lectures which will take the parables and episodes of the Master and unfold their esoteric or metaphysical meaning. The evening lecture will show the effort to picture God objectively through art. A sincere band of workers meet at Mears Street each Thursday for spiritual healing and upliftment.

WALL STONES ARE BEING DEDICATED

Ninety ancient "wall stones" are being dedicated today by the Archbishop of Canterbury at a broadcast Empire service, to which representatives of the Empire's Parliaments and high commissioners have been invited.

One of the stones, which are presented by the dean and chapter of the Cathedral of Canterbury to cathedrals throughout the Empire, is being donated to Christ Church Cathedral here, and will be received by Major F. V. Longstaff, of this city, who represents the cathedral on this occasion.

WAR DEVELOPMENT TO BE PICTURED

F. E. Richards Will Deal With Present Japan-China and Italo-
Ethiopia Situation

"The British-Israel Attitude to War and to the League of Nations: Is the World Now on the Brink of War?" These questions will form the subject of an address to be given by F. E. Richards, under the auspices of the British-Israel World Federation, on Monday, at 8 o'clock, in the Campbell Building.

The seriousness of Japan's action in China, and that of Italy in Ethiopia, carrying as they do, a challenge to the United States in the Pacific, and to Great Britain in the Red Sea, will be demonstrated by the speaker with slides on the screen.

BRITISH-ISRAEL

The following meetings are scheduled to take place in Victoria and district next week. All will start at 8 o'clock unless otherwise stated.

Monday—Middleton Guild, Campbell Building.
Monday—Marigold Branch, Marigold Hall; speaker, Mrs. G. E. Altree Coley.

Monday—Sooke Branch, Sooke.
Monday—Langford Group (Home of G. T. Phipps), at 2:45 o'clock. Speaker, Mrs. C. E. H. Maunsell.

Tuesday—Victoria and District Association, Foresters' Hall; speaker, Mrs. E. W. Abraham.

Wednesday—Prospect Lake Group (Home of J. L. Hewitt); speaker, N. Y. Cross.

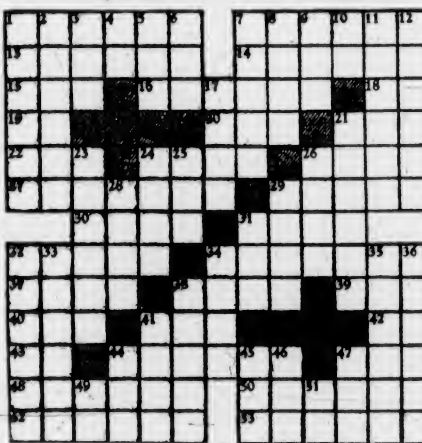

Thursday—Minnie Eason Bible Study Class, 1019 Southgate Street, at 2:45 o'clock.

Friday—Cloverdale Branch, 990 Tolmie Avenue.

The monthly meeting of the Area Council will be held at headquarters, 645 Pandora Avenue, on Monday, June 24, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. James L. Maxwell, who gave several addresses in this city in the Winter of 1932 on medical matters in China, and who is secretary of the Chinese Medical Association, states that the old method of conducting all or most of the activities of a medical mission within the four walls of a hospital is becoming obsolete. There is need for rural clinic work and for public health and preventive operations.
